BlackRock Sterling Strategic Bond Fund

The aim of the Fund is to provide, over periods of three to five consecutive years beginning at the point of investment, a return on your investment (generated through an increase in the value of the assets held by the Fund and/or income received from those assets) of 4.5% per year (gross of fees) over the return of 3-month SONIA compounded in arrears in a manner consistent with the principles of sustainable investment.

In addition, the Fund aims to manage its portfolio of investments with a view to having a volatility of return (i.e. the degree of fluctuation of the Fund's returns) that is lower than the volatility of the monthly returns (converted into an annual rate) of the MSCI All Country World Index (GBP) over any period of seven consecutive years.

The composite benchmark is made up of the following indices, each weighted equally (i.e. each of the indices make up a third of the composite index); Bloomberg Barclays Global Aggregate Corporate GBP Hedged Index, Bloomberg Barclays Global High Yield Index Excl CMBS & EMG 2% Capped GBP Hedged Index and J.P. The Fund aims to provide a level of income (gross of fees) that is higher than that produced by a 50/50 blend of the global bond and equity markets (as represented by the Bloomberg Barclays Global Aggregate Bond Index and MSCI All Country World Index respectively) (i.e. a level of income which exceeds that produced by the constituents of the indices) over periods of five consecutive years beginning at the point of investment. This income objective is secondary to the Fund's aim to maintain its risk profile.

Further information on the performance measures and calculation methodologies used is detailed below:

- Fund returns shown, calculated net of fees, are the performance returns for the primary unit class of the Funds which has been selected as a representative unit class. The primary unit class represents the class of unit which is the highest charging unit class, free of any commissions or rebates, and is freely available. Performance returns for any other unit class can be made available on request.
- For the BlackRock ESG Screened and Selected Strategic Growth Fund, the BlackRock Sterling Short Duration Credit Fund, the BlackRock Sterling Strategic Bond Fund, the BlackRock Systematic Multi Allocation Credit Fund, the BlackRock Global Smaller Companies Fund and the BlackRock Brown to Green Materials Fund, the Fund returns are based on the NAV per unit as at close of business for reporting purposes only, for the purpose of fair comparison and presentation with the target benchmark close of business valuation point.
- For the rest of the Funds, the Fund returns are based on the NAV per unit calculated in accordance with the Prospectus as at 12 noon for dealing purposes. Where, due to a public holiday or market closure(s), a date relevant to determination of the Fund returns would not be a dealing day (such that a NAV would not otherwise be calculated on that day), a NAV may nevertheless be determined and calculated in accordance with the Prospectus for the purposes of these disclosures.
- Due to the Financial Reporting Standard 102 (“FRS 102”) and the Statement of Recommended Practice for Authorised Funds (“SORP”) requirements, including the accounting policy for the valuation point at 12 noon, there may be differences between the NAV per unit as recorded in the financial statements and the NAV per unit calculated in accordance with the Prospectus.

All financial investments involve an element of risk. Therefore, the value of your investment and the income from it will vary and the return of your initial investment amount cannot be guaranteed. Past performance is not a guide to future performance and should not be the sole factor of consideration when selecting a product.

Global Economic Overview

Global equities, as represented by the MSCI All Country World Index, returned 15.59% (in GBP terms) during the twelve months ended 28 February 2025. Equities gained significantly amid cooling inflation (the rate of increase in the prices of goods and services) and increased investor optimism as the world’s largest central banks started to relax monetary policy. However, rising geopolitical tensions, including conflict in the Middle East and Europe, and the threat of protectionism in the US, raised the prospect of disruption to the global economy.

The US economy was solid throughout most of the twelve-month period, posting stronger growth than other developed nations as consumer spending remained resilient. In Japan, gross domestic product (“GDP”) recovered from a period of contraction: the measure expanded by an annualised rate of 0.9% in the third quarter of 2024, following 3.1% growth in the second quarter. The UK economy rebounded in the first six months of 2024 after a disappointing end to 2023. However, output in the third and fourth quarters of 2024 was broadly flat. Growth in the Eurozone recovered over the course of 2024, helped by the strong performance of member nations including Spain, Ireland and Portugal.

Most emerging market economies continued to expand. Although the high interest rate environment presented significant economic challenges, the resilience of the US economy provided support. Chinese GDP grew more slowly than expected amid concerns about the country's real estate sector and weak retail sales. However, China's announcement of a new round of stimulus measures in September 2024 was received positively by investors. The Indian economy expanded at a robust pace, although growth between July and September 2024 was below analysts' expectations. There was a recovery in the final quarter. Growth rebounded in Brazil in the second and third quarters of 2024 due to rise in household and government spending.

Most of the world's largest central banks shifted away from monetary policy tightening as inflation continued to fall over the twelve month period. In September 2024 the US Federal Reserve ("the Fed") reduced interest rates for the first time in over four years. The Fed made further rate cuts in November and December 2024 but signalled a slower pace of reductions in 2025. The Bank of England ("BoE") began cutting interest rates in August 2024, after inflation in the UK had fallen to the BoE's 2.0% target. The European Central Bank ("ECB") reduced interest rates on five occasions between June 2024 and January 2025. Having raised interest rates in March 2024 in response to rising domestic inflation, which had reached levels not seen in decades, the Bank of Japan did so again in July 2024 and at the start of 2025. These were the first increases in borrowing costs in Japan since 2007.

Global equity performance was positive during the twelve month period, as the continuing strength of the world economy averted concerns about a possible recession. Investors generally reacted positively to Donald Trump's victory in the US presidential election in November 2024, but there were concerns around the turn of the year that the new administration's economic policies could lead to higher inflation and, therefore, to fewer interest rate cuts than expected. Meanwhile, major technology stocks advanced on hopes that artificial intelligence ("AI") would drive growth, although concerns increased about the extensive infrastructure investment required to support AI platforms.

Globally, bonds and equities that factor companies' environmental, social and governance ("ESG") characteristics faced regulatory concerns and shifting investor sentiment. Despite this, ESG funds experienced positive inflows overall. Over the year 2024, European investment remained strong, although the pace of outflows in the US accelerated.

Yields (which move inversely to bond prices) on the 10-year US Treasury, a benchmark lending rate for the global bond market, finished the twelve-month period flat. Following a spike in spring 2024, yields dipped on expectations of lower interest rates but rose again towards the end of the twelve month period due to concerns that the incoming US President's economic policies could lead to higher inflation. In the UK, gilt yields ended higher despite the BoE's shift to a more accommodative monetary policy stance. Yields rose especially sharply in autumn 2024 and at the start of 2025 on expectations that the UK government was planning to increase taxes and state spending. European government bond yields rose during the twelve month period as a whole, but ended 2024 below the highs recorded in May and June 2024 on expectations of further ECB rate cuts in 2025. Yields in Japan increased after the government adjusted its yield cap for 10-year government bonds and investors anticipated further interest rate increases.

Global corporate bonds posted solid gains overall as markets reassessed credit in light of declining inflation and interest rates. Increased bond yields attracted investors, and continued resilience in the global economy alleviated credit concerns, particularly for high-yield bonds.

Equities in emerging markets also gained, benefiting from the relatively stable global economic environment and the respite from tighter monetary policy. As concerns about a possible global recession diminished, some investors rotated back into emerging market stocks, boosting prices. Emerging market bonds posted a positive return overall as investors reacted to less restrictive monetary policy in developed economies.

Commodities markets were disrupted by rising geopolitical tensions. Brent crude oil prices rose early in 2024 as instability in the Middle East caused concern among investors. However, prices fell back as global oil production increased, with the US and Canada making particularly large contributions to overall output. Natural gas prices rose sharply in the second half of the twelve-month period as cold weather returned and supply issues emerged. Gold prices rose to record highs as a result of geopolitical tensions, along with the possibility of a number of interest rate reductions in the US and increased demand from investors in Asia.

In the foreign exchange markets, the US dollar's performance was positive against other major global currencies. It rose against sterling, the euro, the Japanese yen and the Chinese yuan.

Fund Performance Review and Activity

BlackRock Sterling Short Duration Credit Fund

Over the financial year to 28 February 2025, the Fund's performance return was 6.58%, underperforming its target benchmark which returned 6.66%.

The Fund is managed on an absolute return basis and not relative to any benchmark. The return of the target benchmark is given for reference purposes only.

The Markit iBoxx £ Corporate 0-5 Index (which gives an indication of the underlying investment universe for the Fund) generated a total return of 6.41% and an excess return (returns that can be attributed to tightening of credit spreads – this is the additional yield earned for holding corporate bonds over government bonds) of 2.24%. Excess returns were positive as credit spreads fell from 121 basis points to 94 basis points. This was driven by supply and demand dynamics within the corporate bond market where investor demand for corporate bonds remained high coming into 2025 due to the attractive yield offered by corporate bonds. This was supported by lower levels of sterling corporate bond issuance during the first half of 2024, where the total gross supply (issuance of new bonds) of sterling-denominated investment-grade bonds was approximately £24.9 billion, down £13 billion from the same period in 2023. The year-over-year in 2025 saw new issuance modestly higher, which alongside uncertainty surrounding growth stemming from US trade tariffs has led to sterling credit spreads modestly widening. UK government bond yields (which move inversely to bond prices) ended the year higher driven by rising inflation expectations and increased government spending (which would lead to additional issuance of UK gilts).

Against this backdrop the Fund delivered a positive absolute return, albeit modestly underperforming its target benchmark on a net basis. The positive absolute total return was driven by sector and security selection within the Financials, Non-Financials, and Utilities sectors.

During the financial year, the following were the largest contributors to and detractors from the Fund's absolute return:

Largest Contributors		Largest Detractors
Strategy	Effect on Fund return	Strategy	Effect on Fund return

Utilities	0.79%	-	-
Industrials	0.49%	-	-
Insurance	0.36%	-	-
Telecommunications	0.33%	-	-

Over the financial year, the Fund focused on investing in high quality companies which exhibited strong credit fundamentals and sectors that were either positioned to benefit from a higher rate environment or those that are less sensitive to economic growth. On the former, the Investment Manager saw value in investing in senior debt issued by UK and European banks and insurance companies relative to subordinated debt as the Investment Manager saw better value in yields on senior bonds relative to those on subordinated debt. On the latter, Utilities and Communications sectors did not perform well due to financing needs at the beginning of the year. Despite this, the Investment Manager chose to buy specific issuers within the European & UK electric utilities and diversified telecommunications sector. The Utilities sector performed well as credit spreads narrowed, which resulted in positive returns for the Fund. Finally, as economic growth and demand for credit was stronger than expected, the Fund's exposure to select automotive companies within the Industrials sector was also additive to returns.

The following table details the significant portfolio weightings at 28 February 2025 and 29 February 2024:

28 February 2025		29 February 2024
Sector	Gross Exposure	Sector	Gross Exposure
Banks	29.30%	Banks	27.30%
Utilities	18.90%	Utilities	19.90%
Industrials	9.30%	Industrials	8.20%
Telecommunications	6.00%	Insurance	6.20%
Insurance	5.50%	Telecommunications	5.40%

Outlook

With credit spreads at multi-year lows, the Investment Manager believes they do not adequately compensate for the potential risks associated with rising inflation and weakening global economic outlook. Sector and security selection remains critical to generating active returns for the Fund.

Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) considerations review

The Fund applied the BlackRock EMEA Baseline Screens, whereby the Investment Manager seeks to limit and/or exclude (as applicable) direct investment in corporate issuers only, which, at the time of purchase, in the opinion of the Investment Manager, have exposure to, or ties with, certain sectors, as detailed in the Sustainable Policy in the Trust's Prospectus. The Fund also applied the Investment Manager's proprietary sustainability evaluation methodology (the “Methodology”) to evaluate whether issuers and/or securities (not already excluded by the BlackRock EMEA Baseline Screens) display positive or negative sustainability characteristics, as detailed in the Sustainable Policy in the Trust's Prospectus.

In respect only of the corporate issuers (i.e. companies) in which the Fund invests, the Investment Manager expects to achieve, as calculated at the end of each calendar quarter, a carbon emission intensity score (a measurement of an issuer's carbon emissions relative to its sales) for the Fund's portfolio of 20% less than the ICE BAML 1-5 Year Global Corporate Index (the "Index"). The Fund's carbon emission intensity score is measured against the Index, but the Index is not used by the Investment Manager to constrain the investment universe of the Fund.

Sustainability Metric	Description of Metric	Fund	Index
BlackRock EMEA baseline screens and the Methodology	# of advertent breaches	No advertent breaches	0

BlackRock Sterling Strategic Bond Fund

Over the financial year to 28 February 2025, the Fund's performance return was 5.38%, very regrettably underperforming its target benchmark which returned 9.81%.

The Fund is managed on an absolute return basis and not relative to any benchmark. The return of the target benchmark is given for reference purposes only.

Credit spreads (the difference in yield between government and corporate bonds with similar maturities) fell from 121 basis points to 94 basis points over the financial year. This was driven by supply and demand dynamics within the corporate bond market, where investor demand for corporate bonds remained high throughout the year due to the attractive yield offered by these bonds. This was further supported by the historically low supply in 2024 which saw a £7 billion drop in gross issuance versus the average of the past five years. However, since the beginning of 2025, issuance of corporate bonds has seen an uptick, representing a near 50% increase from the same time last year, driving some of the widening of credit spreads seen during February 2025 (This is because when supply increases, the prices of bonds can decrease (this has an inverse relationship to the yield and credit spread)).

UK government bond yields (which move inversely to bond prices) ended the year higher. In the UK, anticipation of the new Labour Government's debut budget was characterised by the expectations of increased government bond supply. This, coupled with market participants' caution due to the lingering memory of the Liz Truss Government budget, drove UK government bond yields higher. Around the same time, as predictions of a Republican win in the US presidential election grew, so did expectations of an expansionary fiscal policy in the US, which market participants believed would have a global inflationary effect. Both events led to an increase in UK government bond yields as uncertainty around the UK's economic future rose. This was further spurred by rising inflation over the latter half of 2024, leading to decreased expectations of official rate cuts in 2025. The political uncertainty continued into 2025 with tariff announcements driving further inflationary pressure.

Against this backdrop, the Fund delivered a positive total return over the period, albeit underperforming the target benchmark which was driven by sector and security selection within the Financials, Utilities and Non-Financials sectors.

During the financial year, the following were the largest contributors to and detractors from the Fund's absolute return:

Largest Contributors		Largest Detractors
Sector	Effect on Fund return	Sector	Effect on Fund return
Banks	2.18%	Governments	(0.42%)
Insurance	1.01%	-	-
Utilities	0.82%	-	-
Telecommunications	0.35%	-	-
Industrials	0.30%	-	-

The largest detractor from Fund returns resulted from the exposure to UK Government Bonds as yields, which move inversely to bond prices, rose throughout the year.

Over the year, the Investment Manager focused on investing in high quality, companies which exhibited strong credit fundamentals and sectors that were either positioned to benefit from a higher rate environment or those that are less sensitive to economic growth. Within the Financials sector, the Investment Manager focused on high quality, European and Sterling Insurance companies as their business model tends to benefit from a higher interest rate environment. This resulted in Banks and Insurance being the largest drivers of returns over the year.

The Investment Manager also found good opportunities in non-cyclical sectors such as Utilities and Telecommunications. While initially these sectors did not perform well due to their financing needs at the beginning of the year, risks around financing needs abated later in the year along with the tightening of credit spreads, which resulted in strong positive returns.

Finally, as economic growth and demand for credit was stronger than expected the Fund's exposure to select Transportation companies within the Industrials sector was also additive to returns.

The following table details the significant portfolio weightings at 28 February 2025 and 29 February 2024:

28 February 2025		29 February 2024
Sector	Gross Exposure	Sector	Gross Exposure

Utilities	28.00%	Utilities	26.75%
Insurance	11.23%	Insurance	14.19%
Industrials	5.58%	Governments	12.77%
Governments	3.87%	Telecommunications	5.33%

Compared to the same period last year, the Fund reduced its allocation to government bonds as global yields continued to rise throughout 2024, which detracted from returns. The Fund rotated out of telecommunications finding better opportunities in select European and Sterling issuers within Industrials.

Outlook

With credit spreads at multi-year lows, the Investment Manager believes they do not adequately compensate for the potential risks associated with rising inflation and weakening global economic outlook. Sector and security selection remains critical to generating active returns for the Fund.

BlackRock ESG Screened and Selected Strategic Growth Fund

Over the financial year to 28 February 2025, the Fund’s performance return was 6.95%, very regrettably underperforming its target benchmark which returned 9.51%.

In addition to the target benchmark, the Fund also has a comparator composite benchmark composed of 45% MSCI All Country World Index, 30% Bloomberg Barclays Global Aggregate Index and 25% 3-month SONIA compounded in arrears. This composite was chosen because it represents a blend of the global bond and equity markets, reflecting a significant part of the Fund’s investment universe. Over the financial year to 28 February 2025, the comparator benchmark delivered a return of 10.20%.

During the financial year, resilient economic growth and interest rate cuts by central banks in developed markets acted as positive catalysts for equity and bond market returns. Instances of volatility (market ups and downs), primarily driven by the Bank of Japan’s interest rate hikes and geopolitical uncertainty, were short lived. Following the US presidential election results, US equity markets continued their strong performance, however, towards the end of the financial year, concerns about growth, developments in Artificial Intelligence driven by the release of DeepSeek, and the prospects of increased tariffs led to markets relinquishing some of the gains. In the US, bond underperformance was driven by concerns over the direction of the US fiscal situation and persistent inflation, which tempered market expectations for the speed of interest rate cuts. In Europe, political uncertainty led to rising yields (which move inversely to bond prices).

The Fund delivered a positive absolute return over the year, albeit underperforming its target benchmark. At an asset class level, the positive absolute returns were driven from allocation to developed market equities. The Fund’s currency positioning, allocations to commodities, non-government and government bonds and emerging market equities also added to returns. Within the Fund’s allocation to listed alternatives (financial assets that do not fall into traditional categories like stocks or bonds), the allocation to listed renewable energy infrastructure offset gains from venture capital exposure, due to the prospect of interest rates remaining higher for longer.

During the financial year, the following were the largest contributors to and detractors from the Fund’s absolute return:

Largest Contributors		Largest Detractors
Strategy	Effect on Fund return	Strategy	Effect on Fund return
US Enterprise Tech ESG Basket	0.90%	Syncona	(0.34%)
iShares Physical Gold ETC	0.84%	Nuclear Energy ESG Basket	(0.19%)
iShares USD Corp Bond ESG UCITS ETF	0.43%	Aquila European Renewables Fund	(0.13%)
Global Brands ESG Basket	0.37%	Greencoat UK Wind	(0.09%)
Employee Sentiment ESG Basket	0.35%	Gresham House Energy Storage Fund	(0.07%)

Syncona was the largest detractor from the Fund’s returns, impacted by broader negative sentiment towards the biotech sector. The share prices of Aquila European Renewable Income Fund and Gresham House Energy Storage Fund came under pressure as revenue generation disappointed. In particular, the allocation to Gresham House Energy Storage Fund detracted over the year as it was impacted by the UK energy system making minimal use of battery storage, affecting revenues, though changes to this process have already resulted in improved revenues. Greencoat UK Wind also detracted from returns. Towards the end of the year, the Fund invested in Nuclear Energy ESG Basket, although this position detracted initially from returns, this is an area that the Investment Manager has conviction given the changing policy backdrop towards nuclear energy.

The Fund’s exposure to equities through thematic baskets was a key driver of returns. The US Enterprise Tech ESG Basket added to returns driven by continued outperformance of the US technology sector. The Global Brands ESG Basket also benefitted from exposure to technology, consumer discretionary and health care sectors. The Employee Sentiment ESG Basket, designed to gain exposure to companies which outperform their competitors on employee sentiment scores resulting in higher productivity, talent retention, and lower employee turnover, also contributed positively to performance. The iShares Physical Gold ETC provided a diversifying source of returns amid rising geopolitical tensions, acting as a safe-haven asset, whilst resilient economic growth led to the iShares USD Corp Bond ESG UCITS ETF performing positively over the period.

The Investment Manager did not make any major changes to portfolio positioning during the year, as we maintain confidence in the long-term views expressed within the portfolio. The Fund reduced exposure to government bonds due to concerns around persistent inflation and the fiscal backdrop in the US and Europe. Instead, the Fund allocated to diversifying strategies such as volatility strategies, commodities, and cash.

Outlook

The Investment Manager believes that the recent volatility will continue to be a persistent characteristic of the markets. While the US economy remains robust with resilient earnings and employment data, the impact of the US administration's policy agenda on growth, business and consumer confidence remain uncertain. Additionally, there are indications that the performance of financial markets will not be a priority for the US administration as it has been previously.

In Europe, although growth is sluggish, sentiment has improved. The Investment Manager believes there is potential for significant German fiscal reform in defence and infrastructure spending, which could bring changes in European asset markets. The Investment Manager anticipates that European government bond yields may rise and break out of their structural ranges. Further interest rate cuts by the European Central Bank are likely due to continued reduction in inflation. A potential resolution to the Russia-Ukraine geopolitical conflict could lower gas prices and boost growth. Concurrently, the Investment Manager remains vigilant about the risks posed by potential US trade tariffs.

Given this backdrop the Investment Manager remains cautiously positioned with a more neutral level of equity risk. While the Investment Manager is positive on government bonds, they remain cautious in the near-term. The Fund maintains a constructive allocation to assets such as gold and volatility strategies, which continue to be effective diversifiers.

Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") considerations review

The Fund will apply the BlackRock EMEA Baseline Screens and other exclusionary screens to all direct investments in corporate issuers.

In applying the BlackRock EMEA Baseline Screens, the Investment Manager will limit and/or exclude (as applicable) direct investments in corporate issuers which have exposure to, or ties with, the following sectors (in some cases subject to specific revenue thresholds): controversial weapons or nuclear weapons, firearms or small arms ammunition intended for retail to civilians, fossil fuels, tobacco, or issuers that are non-compliant with the UN Global Compact Principles. Further details relating to the BlackRock EMEA Baseline Screens can be found in the Fund's prospectus.

In addition to the above BlackRock EMEA Baseline Screens, the Investment Manager will also limit and/or exclude (as applicable) direct investment in corporate issuers which derive revenue (subject to specific revenue thresholds as per the Fund's prospectus) from the following sectors: conventional weapons, alcoholic products, gambling facilities and gambling-related business activities, adult entertainment or predatory lending; or issuers that have an MSCI ESG rating below BBB.

In addition, the Fund will have at least 70% of its investments in collective investment schemes which applies ESG criteria within their investment processes ("ESG Funds"). The Investment Manager will invest in ESG Funds that:

(a) have an ESG objective (including, but not limited to, a carbon reduction target or an improvement in ESG scores) or apply a best in-class investment approach (i.e. avoiding or underweighting issuers with the lowest ESG scores or ratings and / or including or overweighting issuers with the highest ESG scores or ratings); and / or

(b) following a similar approach to the application of the BlackRock EMEA Baseline Screens, apply exclusionary screens to issuers which have exposure to, or ties with, certain sectors (in some cases subject to specific revenue thresholds) (including, but not limited to, activities relating to controversial weapons or nuclear weapons, firearms or small arms ammunition for civilian use, fossil fuels, tobacco or issuers that are non-compliant with the UN Global Compact Principles).

As set out above, the Investment Manager applies the BlackRock EMEA Baseline Screens and other exclusionary screens to all direct investments in corporate issuers. During the reporting period from 1 March 2024 to 28 February 2025, the Fund had no advertent breaches (resulting from an action that was within the Investment Manager's control) arising as a result of application of the exclusionary screens.

During the reporting period from 1 March 2024 to 28 February 2025, the Fund's average exposure, based on month-end positioning, in collective investment schemes that apply ESG criteria within their investment processes as a percentage of total exposure to collective investment schemes was 90.7%.

BlackRock Systematic Multi Allocation Credit Fund

Over the financial year to 28 February 2025, the Fund's performance return was 8.88% and the active return was 0.34%, outperforming its target benchmark which returned 8.54% (active return is the difference between the Fund's return and the target benchmark return).

In March 2024 global bond markets experienced a positive trend, however the sentiment turned negative in April as investors reassessed their views on the future path of interest rates following stronger-than-expected inflation data. In May, sentiment improved again due to weaker-than-expected inflation, and this positive theme continued until September. Sentiment shifted negative once more in October, as fiscal policy concerns resurfaced along with heightened geopolitical tensions. Despite these issues, sentiment was positive following Donald Trump's victory in the US presidential election in November. However, sentiment turned negative again in December, driven in part by the Federal Reserve's hawkish tone (in favour of higher interest rates) and renewed fiscal and trade policy concerns. Sentiment was positive in January 2025, with credit spreads tightening and risk assets performing well, but it was mixed in February as credit spreads (the difference in yield between government and corporate bonds with similar maturities) widened.

Over the financial year, the Fund maintained a risk-on bias, expressed through overweight allocations to emerging markets. At the start of the year, the Fund was underweight investment-grade credit, and overweight high-yield credit. As the period progressed, signals indicated support for moving marginally overweight investment-grade credit and trimming the high-yield positioning to underweight. Positioning in emerging markets and high-yield credit generated positive returns for the Fund, while positioning in investment-grade credit detracted.

During the financial year, the following were the largest contributors to and detractors from the Fund's return relative to the target benchmark:

Largest Contributors		Largest Detractors
Strategy	Effect on Fund return	Strategy	Effect on Fund return
Security Selection	0.60%	-	-
Asset Allocation	0.02%	-	-

Both the defensive positioning (Security Selection) and the top-down Asset Allocation strategies added value during the year. The Fund's outperformance primarily arose during the first half of the year. In March, the Fund reduced its high-yield credit exposure to flat while maintaining a pro-risk bias with an overweight to emerging markets credit. Positive outlook for investment grade credit and forward looking growth data in the US and China supported this move. Over the next few months, security selection within high-yield and investment-grade corporates contributed positively to performance, especially within the technology sector. In December, the Fund turned more overweight to investment-grade credit and trimmed its high-yield positioning to underweight. Security selection continued to perform well, with positions in technology and consumer non-cyclical sectors being the strongest performers. Overall, asset allocation decisions also contributed positively to performance.

The following table details the significant active positions, where the Fund was overweight (held more exposure than the target benchmark) and underweight (held less exposure than the target benchmark), at 28 February 2025 and 29 February 2024:

Top overweight positions
28 February 2025		29 February 2024
Sector	Active Weighting	Sector	Active Weighting
Investment-Grade Credit	2.58%	Emerging Markets	4.01%
Emerging Markets	1.42%	High Yield	1.08%

Top underweight positions
28 February 2025		29 February 2024
Sector	Active Weighting	Sector	Active Weighting
High Yield	(3.30%)	Investment-Grade Credit	(4.28%)

Where the Fund is underweight to a sector, the return from such sector will have an opposite effect on the Fund's active return. This may result in a sector being listed as a contributor/detractor but not listed on the Fund's Portfolio Statement.

Outlook

The Investment Manager expects credit spreads to continue to widen amidst higher recession probabilities. In addition, the impact of the US administration's policy agenda on growth, along with business and consumer confidence remain uncertain. In Europe, while growth is sluggish, sentiment has improved, and further European Central Bank interest rate cuts are likely. The Investment Manager will continue to closely monitor the market volatility, and any further actions by the Trump administration and guidance from the Federal Reserve.

Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) considerations review

The Fund will apply the BlackRock EMEA Baseline Screens, as follows:

The Investment Manager will limit and/or exclude direct investments in corporate issuers which have exposure to, or ties with, the following sectors (in some cases subject to specific revenue thresholds):

- (a) the production of certain types of controversial weapons or nuclear weapons;
- (b) the distribution or production of firearms or small arms ammunition intended for retail to civilians;
- (c) the extraction of certain types of fossil fuel and/or the generation of power from them;
- (d) the production of tobacco products or certain activities in relation to tobacco-related products; and
- (e) issuers which have been deemed to have failed to comply with UN Global Compact Principles.

The BlackRock EMEA Baseline Screens described above are only applied by the Investment Manager to direct investments made by the Fund in corporate issuers and, accordingly, the Fund may have exposure to other investments (including, but not limited to, derivatives, money market instruments, units or shares in collective investment schemes, cash and assets that can be turned into cash quickly) which are inconsistent with the BlackRock EMEA Baseline Screens. However, such exposure is not expected to exceed 20 per cent of the Fund's total assets.

As set out above, the Investment Manager applies the BlackRock EMEA Baseline Screens to all direct investments in corporate issuers. During the financial year to 28 February 2025, the Fund had no advertent breaches (resulting from an action that was within the Investment Manager's control) arising as a result of application of the exclusionary screens.

BlackRock Global Smaller Companies Fund

Over the financial period from 28 May 2024 (the Fund's launch date) to 28 February 2025, the Fund's performance return was 1.34% and the active return was (5.35%), regrettably underperforming its comparator benchmark which returned 6.69% (active return is the difference between the Fund's return and the comparator benchmark return)

In early 2024, US equities saw strong growth driven by the dominance of the Magnificent 7 (a group of high performing and influential technology companies in the US stock market) and artificial intelligence (AI) beneficiaries, despite rate cuts being pushed out due to data suggesting inflation to be stickier than previously priced. However, the second half of 2024 saw muted index results overall despite some intra-month volatility around key events such as interest rate hikes in Japan, rate cuts from Bank of England, the Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the US election.

Since the beginning of 2025, the outperformance of US equities has largely unwound by the end of the financial period, with the US underperforming on the back of tariff and re-inflation concerns. Conversely Europe has outperformed, with the region benefitting from increased defence spending and a move towards pro-growth policies.

Against this backdrop, notably the heightened level of concentration in equity markets, the small & mid-cap stocks lagged large-cap peers over the financial period and the Fund underperformed its comparator benchmark. While in aggregate the underlying holdings have delivered positively, the Fund experienced some stock level disappointments. During the financial period the Investment Manager has observed that negative stock specific updates severely impacted shares, while the reaction to positive updates was more muted. The Fund's relative overweight exposure (owning more than the comparator benchmark) to the UK also negatively impacted performance given the underperformance of UK equities, for example Great Portland and Grafton.

During the financial period, the following were the largest contributors to and detractors from the Fund's return relative to the comparator benchmark:

Largest Contributors		Largest Detractors
Stock	Effect on Fund return	Stock	Effect on Fund return
VSE Corp [#]	0.54%	Bruker Corp. [#]	(1.38%)

LPL Financial Holdings, Inc [#]	0.50%	Lundin Mining Corp. [#]	(0.65%)
ServisFirst BancShares, Inc [#]	0.50%	Grafton Group PLC [#]	(0.61%)

[#] Overweight position - holds more exposure than the comparator benchmark.

Bruker Corporation's shares fell on concerns over funding cuts involving the budget for research institutions made by the National Institutes of Health (NIH) in the US, as 50% of the company's sales are into academic markets. As direct NIH funding is less than 5% of revenue and the company does not benefit from the areas being cut (which is targeting admin budgets), the Investment Manager has therefore added to the position as the shares offer outstanding value. VSE Corp had results which beat expectations, and the company upgraded their 2025 outlook. The company also announced the disposal of their fleet business, which was non-core and means they are now entirely focused on their attractive aerospace aftermarket business.

The following table details the significant active positions, where the Fund was overweight (held more exposure than the comparator benchmark and underweight (held less exposure than the comparator benchmark), as at 28 February 2025 and 31 May 2024:

Where the Fund was underweight to a Sector, the return from such Sector will have an opposite effect on the Fund’s active return. This may result in a Sector being listed as a contributor/detractor but not listed on the Fund’s Portfolio Statement.

Outlook

The Investment Manager believes that the backdrop in 2025 remains compelling. Small caps continue to bump along the bottom of their draw down versus large caps, trading at a significant 25% discount, compared to a premium for much of the last decade. Meanwhile, correlations to large caps remain low. If investors look to diversify away from the highly concentrated large cap consensus trade, this discount could reverse quickly. This sets a positive backdrop for the asset class and could lead to a strong period for the Fund’s strategy.

BlackRock Brown To Green Materials Fund

Over the financial period from 17 January 2025 to 28 February 2025, the Fund’s performance return was -1.35% outperforming its comparator benchmark which returned -2.12%.

The Fund is managed on an absolute return basis and not relative to any benchmark. The return of the comparator benchmark is given for reference purposes only.

During the financial period, markets were impacted by the launch of a Chinese artificial intelligence application called DeepSeek, which brought the cost and power requirements of such technologies into question. Meanwhile, US tariff announcements increased uncertainty around global economic growth. These factors held back performance of the Brown to Green Materials theme, despite generally positive commodity price returns, with iron ore, silver and copper prices rising +1.49%, +2.00% and +2.82% respectively for instance.

During the period the following were the largest contributors to and detractors from the Fund’s absolute return:

Largest Contributors		Largest Detractors
Stock	Effect on Fund return	Stock	Effect on Fund return
Holcim	0.57%	Fluor Corporation	(0.48%)
Air Liquide	0.54%	Owens Corning	(0.47%)
ArcelorMittal	0.48%	Cameco Corporation	(0.34%)
Ecolab Inc	0.45%	Martin Marietta Materials	(0.23%)
Danieli	0.43%	Freeport McMoran	(0.21%)

The Fund’s holdings connected to nuclear power, such as Fluor Corporation and Cameco Corporation, detracted from performance on reduced expectations around the power requirements of artificial intelligence. These companies had performed well in the run up to the period under review as they were seen as beneficiaries. On the positive side, the Fund’s position in European steel producer, ArcelorMittal, performed strongly after the US implemented tariffs on competitor steel supply from Canada, Mexico and China.

Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) considerations review

The aim of the Fund is to maximise total returns (over 5 rolling year periods) through investment in the equity securities of companies globally that contribute to the transition towards a low-carbon global economy with a focus on the materials sector. The Fund's sustainability objective is to invest in companies that the Investment Manager has identified as having the potential to reduce their contribution to climate change, where such companies are expected to demonstrate significant progress towards decarbonizing their operations (as assessed against short and medium-term key performance indicators established by the company itself or by the Investment Manager at the point of investment).

In seeking to achieve its investment objective, the Fund will invest a minimum of 70% of its total assets in the equity securities of companies globally that contribute to the transition towards a low-carbon global economy as part of the transitioning materials theme. The transitioning materials theme covers the need for materials to build lower carbon technologies and efforts to reduce the emissions intensity of the materials sector, as detailed in the “Investment Process and ESG” section below. The companies may have a large, medium or small market capitalisation and, although the Fund will focus on the materials sector, may sit in any industry sectors.

The Investment Manager applies an asset selection process seeking to determine a universe of potential investments conforming to principles which are consistent with the transitioning materials theme. The Investment Manager defines these principles to be met by the following categories: (1) Emission Reducers: companies producing materials that plan to reduce their carbon emissions intensity over a defined period; (2) Enablers: companies producing materials that enable the world to transition to a lower carbon global economy and companies providing solutions that enable companies producing materials to reduce their emissions intensity; and (3) Green Leaders: companies producing materials with below average carbon emissions intensity for their particular industry.

BlackRock's 'SDR Improver Assessment' methodology (“the Methodology”) requires that at least 70% of the assets held by the Fund have been assessed by the Investment Manager as “Transition Improvers” - companies which demonstrate they are making progress towards reducing their carbon emission profile through meeting at least one of the following:

- (a) companies which have approved net-zero targets validated by the Science Based Target Initiative (“SBTi”);
- (b) companies which have committed to set 2050 or earlier net-zero targets for validation by the SBTi and have been identified by MSCI as on track to meet their respective targets;
- (c) companies with published emission reduction targets who are on track to meet their decarbonisation targets, as identified by MSCI;

(d) companies identified as ‘High Climate Impact’ sectors, being those sectors which are key to the low-carbon transition, whose operations are aligned with the temperature goals set out in the Paris Agreement; and

(e) companies that do not have established climate targets and/or commitments but are demonstrating momentum towards decarbonising their operations of the Methodology. Further information on each of these criteria is set out in the Fund’s prospectus.

Further details

The Fund may invest in other asset classes that may not be consistent with the transitioning materials theme to give the Fund the best chance of achieving its investment objective and/or for liquidity purposes, where such investments do not conflict with the Fund’s sustainability objective.

The Investment Manager manages the potential for any material negative environmental and/or social outcomes from its investments by applying a screening process to all investments, as further detailed in the Fund’s prospectus. The Fund is not prohibited from investing in companies that operate in the fossil fuel value chain and have fossil fuel related revenues, where such companies contribute to the transition towards a low-carbon global economy.

The Investment Manager engages with investee companies on the topic of decarbonisation progress. Investee companies that are determined to be “not on track” with the key performance indicators (“KPIs”) (see ‘Sustainability Metrics’ below) will trigger the Fund’s Escalation Policy. Further details on the Escalation Policy are set out in the Fund’s prospectus.

The following table provides information about the performance of the Fund in relation to its sustainability metrics and KPIs during the reference period which is from 17 January 2025 to 28 February 2025. The Fund launched on 17 January 2025 and unless otherwise stated below, the figures presented are as at 28 February 2025. Calculations regarding percentage of Transition Improvers “on track” are calculated as at 28 February 2025 and relate to bespoke base years for each company.

Medium-Term KPI	% of Transition Improvers held by the Fund that are "on track" towards their medium-term decarbonisation target. Where companies do not have medium term targets, the medium-term target will be defined as the proportion of the company's long-term target expected to be achieved over the next ten years. In the absence of a long-term target, as set out above, the Investment Manager will use an appropriate SBTi Sectoral Decarbonization Approach (or equivalent) sector bound 2050 target	72.9%

*This number denotes assets approved solely in accordance with point (e) of the methodology, which captures companies, identified through the Investment Manager's fundamental analysis, that do not have established climate targets and/or commitments but are demonstrating clear momentum towards decarbonising their operations.

As per the sustainability objective, the Investment Manager is satisfied that through the period under review, the Fund has been invested in companies with the potential to reduce their contribution to climate change, where such companies are expected to demonstrate significant progress towards decarbonizing their operations.

The Investment Manager assesses each investee company's progress towards achieving its short- and medium-term decarbonisation target. Further detail on this "on track" methodology is set out in the Fund's prospectus. If the data indicates substantial deviation from the expected decarbonisation pathway in relation to a target, the investee company will be deemed "not on track" and added to the Fund's Climate Watchlist as well as being subject to an investment review conducted by the Investment Manager (as further described in the Escalation Policy set out in the Fund's prospectus). If an investee company has made no progress for three years (i.e. has remained on the Climate Watchlist over a consecutive three-year period), it will no longer qualify as a "Transition Improver" and will therefore continue to be held by the Fund but not be counted towards the portion of the Fund's total assets invested in equity securities that contribute to the Fund's sustainability objective (being a minimum of 70% of the portfolio).

Over the financial year to 28 February 2025, the Funds’ performance returns were 7.57%, 6.96%, 9.72%, 9.18%, 11.01%, 10.19%, 13.04% and 12.40% for the eight Funds, respectively.

The dividend yield of the MyMap 4 Select Income Fund was 3.27% as of 28 February 2025. The 5 year annualised standard deviation of the MyMap 3, MyMap 4, MyMap 5 and MyMap 6 Funds was 5.62%, 7.76%, 9.49% and 11.28%, respectively, as of 28 February 2025.

The financial year has been particularly volatile, with strong fluctuations in financial markets. Economic momentum from the first quarter continued into the second quarter, leading to positive equity markets. However, inflation led to negative fixed income returns in the second quarter as the Federal Reserve rate cuts were delayed. In Europe, the European Central Bank cut interest rates amid a decline in inflation, but political uncertainty caused yields (which move inversely to bond prices) to rise. In the third quarter, financial markets saw predominantly positive performance although volatility increased over the summer driven by disappointing US economic data, but markets recovered towards the end of the quarter driven by interest rate cuts from the Federal Reserve as well as solid economic growth numbers. Following President Trump’s win in the US presidential elections in the fourth quarter, equity markets and other risk assets rallied in the final quarter of 2024. The beginning of 2025 brought uncertainty driven by the US administration’s trade tariffs although markets remained positive in January. However, in February, equity markets, in particular the US equities fell, driven by news surrounding trade tariffs, and other economic data in both the US and Europe, while risk-off assets (investments that are considered safer and less volatile) outperformed.

The MyMap Funds posted positive performances over the year, with equities and fixed income generally contributing to performance. US equities, in particular, were a notable contributor to performance. The foreign exchange hedging overlay, that hedges a significant proportion of US dollar exposure back to Pound sterling, detracted over the financial year while the Euro hedging exposure was additive to returns.

Outlook

The MyMap funds are positioned to capture three key trends expected to drive markets in 2025:

- a robust economic backdrop with strong global growth and falling interest rates, leading to a tilt towards equity markets, listed property, and emerging market debt;
- exceptionalism for the USA, with faster growth due to an expansionary fiscal policy, leadership in Artificial Intelligence, and a strong labour market, motivating increased exposure to US equities and the US dollar while underweighting US government bonds; and
- the potential for further interest rate cuts outside the US, prompting a reduction in broad commodity exposure in favour of gold and maintaining elevated exposure to gilts due to attractive yields and a favourable economic outlook in the UK.

The Funds may invest in collective investment schemes which primarily invest in government bonds ("Government Bonds Funds"). At least 80% of Government Bond Funds in which the Fund invests track benchmark indices with exposure to at least 80% of government bond issuers with an ESG government rating of BB or higher (as defined by MSCI or the comparable rating of another third-party vendor).

The Funds will invest in collective investment schemes other than Government Bond Funds, real estate and commodity funds and collective investment schemes held for Effective Portfolio Management ("EPM") purposes ("Other CIS"). At least 80% of Other CIS in which the Fund invests themselves should apply ESG criteria within their investment processes. These ESG criteria include: (i) the exclusion or underweighting of issuers or sectors which are involved in activities that are negative from an ESG investing perspective and/or issuers with low ESG or ESG related scores; and (ii) the inclusion or overweighting of issuers or sectors which are positive from an ESG investing perspective, and/or issuers with high ESG or ESG related scores. Further detail on these ESG criteria is available in the Fund's prospectus.

In addition, in respect of corporate issuers (i.e. companies) invested in by the Other CIS held by the Funds, the Investment Manager aims to achieve, for the portion of the Funds' portfolio comprising of indirect exposure to such corporate issuers:

- a) a carbon emission intensity score of 30% less than the Reference Comparator, as calculated at the end of each calendar quarter; and
- b) an absolute reduction in the carbon emission intensity score, calculated as follows:
 - at 31 March 2028, by comparing the carbon emission intensity score at that date to the carbon emission intensity score of the portfolio five years prior i.e. on 31 March 2023; and
 - thereafter, at the end of each calendar quarter, by comparing the carbon emission intensity score of the portfolio at that date to the carbon emission intensity score of the portfolio at the equivalent date five years prior (each as detailed in 'Sustainability Metrics' below).

Over the financial year to 28 February 2025, the Funds’ performance returns were 7.29%, 8.83%, 9.75%, 10.69%, 11.65%, 12.51%, 12.96%, 13.09% and 13.05% for the nine Funds, respectively.

All of the LifePath Funds delivered positive returns over the financial year. For Funds that are further away from their target retirement date (e.g., BlackRock LifePath Target Date Fund 2065), performance was particularly strong given their higher equity weighting compared to LifePath portfolios that are closer to the target retirement date (e.g., BlackRock LifePath Retirement Fund).

During the financial year, developed market equities, real estate, and fixed income assets experienced robust gains as investors anticipated and then benefited from interest rate cuts by major central banks. With expectations of a more accommodative policy environment, increased consumer and business spending drove stock prices higher. Lower financing costs boosted property investment returns, while rising demand for bonds pushed up prices and yielded attractive returns compared to cash.

The strong equity performance was driven in part due to a surge of global monetary easing measures and a rally in the technology sector, with developed market equities outperforming developed market small cap equities and emerging market counterparts.

Bonds contributed positively to the LifePath portfolios that have a fixed income allocation (LifePath Target Date Fund 2055 to BlackRock LifePath Retirement Fund). Emerging market debt and corporate bonds outperformed developed market government bonds throughout the financial year, as the expectation for lower interest rates positively impacted this riskier segment of the market.

Alternative investments (financial assets that do not fall into traditional categories like stocks or bonds), namely property securities and commodities, delivered strong returns over the financial year, contributing positively to the Funds’ performance.

Outlook

Looking into 2025, investors remain cautious of potential risks, including geopolitical tensions, inflationary pressures, and central bank policy decisions, as they navigate the market landscape moving forward.

Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) considerations review

Each Fund is a target date retirement fund, whose investment objective is to provide a return on investment (generated through an increase in the value of the assets held by the Fund and/or income received from those assets) with an asset allocation (i.e. mix of assets) that changes over time. Each Fund aims to invest in accordance with its ESG policy as defined in the Trust’s Prospectus.

The Investment Manager will monitor the application of the ESG commitments described above by measuring the “ESG score” of the Funds’ portfolios and the “Carbon emission intensity score” of the Funds’ portfolios, including by reference to a “Reference Comparator” (namely a notional portfolio that represents the investment universe of the Fund but which does not apply any ESG commitments).

‘Carbon emission intensity scores’ are a measurement of carbon emissions of an issuer relative to the issuer’s size based on data from one or more third party ESG research providers.

The 'carbon emission intensity score' of a Fund's portfolio is calculated by aggregating the weighted carbon emission intensity scores attributed only to the corporate issuers in which a Fund invests (whether directly or indirectly through collective investment schemes). Securities issued by non-corporate issuers in which a Fund directly or indirectly invests, such as fixed income securities issued by governments and commodities (indirect exposure only), are not included. The same exclusion of non-corporate issuers applies to the carbon emission intensity score calculated for the Reference Comparator. The calculation of carbon emission intensity scores includes Scope 1 GHG (Green House Gas) emissions and Scope 2 GHG emissions but excludes Scope 3 GHG emissions.

ESG scores are a measurement of issuers' ability to manage financially relevant ESG risks and opportunities. Each rating takes into consideration an issuer's exposure to potentially material ESG risks, the quality of the issuer's management systems and governance structures relative to those potential ESG risks, and where applicable, how the issuer is positioning to meet market demand for the provision of products and services that have a positive environmental or social contribution.

The ESG score of a Fund's portfolio is calculated by aggregating the weighted ESG scores attributable to each issuer in which that Fund invests (whether directly or indirectly through collective investment schemes). The ESG scores of underlying commodity funds, and collective investment schemes held for Effective Portfolio Management purposes, are not available and accordingly not included in this calculation.

The figures presented are based on the figures as at the end of each quarter during this reference period, which are averaged to produce the single figure shown in the table below.

Report on Remuneration

The below disclosures are made in respect of the remuneration policies of the BlackRock group ("BlackRock"), as they apply to BlackRock Fund Managers Limited (the "ManCo"). The disclosures are made in accordance with the provisions in the UK implementation of Directive 2009/65/EC on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities ("UCITS"), as amended, including in particular by Directive 2014/91/EU of the European Parliament and of the council of 23 July 2014, (the "Directive"), the "Guidelines on sound remuneration policies under the UCITS Directive and AIFMD" issued by the European Securities and Markets Authority, the Collective Investment Schemes (Amendment etc.) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018, the Financial Conduct Authority ("FCA") Handbook SYSC 19E: The UCITS Remuneration Code (the "UCITS Remuneration Code"), and COLL 4.5.7 R(7).

BlackRock's UCITS Remuneration Policy (the "UCITS Remuneration Policy") will apply to the EEA entities within the BlackRock group authorised as a ManCo of UCITS funds in accordance with the Directive, and will ensure compliance with the requirements of Article 14b of the Directive and to UK entities within the BlackRock group authorised as a ManCo of a UK UCITS fund in accordance with UCITS as implemented, retained and onshored in the UK.

The ManCo has adopted the UCITS Remuneration Policy, a summary of which is set out below.

Remuneration Governance

BlackRock's remuneration governance in EMEA operates as a tiered structure which includes: (a) the Management Development and Compensation Committee ("MDCC") (which is the global, independent remuneration committee for BlackRock, Inc. and (b) the ManCo's board of directors (the "ManCo's Board"). These bodies are responsible for the determination of BlackRock's remuneration policies which includes reviewing the remuneration policy on a regular basis and being responsible for its implementation.

The implementation of the remuneration policy is annually subject to central and independent review for compliance with policies and procedures for remuneration adopted by the MDCC and by the ManCo's Board. The most recent review found no material issues. The remuneration disclosure is produced and owned by the MDCC and the ManCo's Board.

No material changes were made to the remuneration policy in 2024.

(a) MDCC

The MDCC's purposes include:

- providing oversight of:
 - BlackRock's executive compensation programmes;
 - BlackRock's employee benefit plans; and
 - such other compensation plans as may be established by BlackRock from time to time for which the MDCC is deemed as administrator;
- reviewing and discussing the compensation discussion and analysis included in the BlackRock, Inc. annual proxy statement with management and approving the MDCC's report for inclusion in the proxy statement;
- reviewing, assessing and making reports and recommendations to the BlackRock, Inc. Board of Directors (the 'BlackRock, Inc. Board') as appropriate on BlackRock's talent development and succession planning, with the emphasis on performance and succession at the highest management levels; and

- supporting the boards of the Company's EMEA regulated entities in meeting their remuneration-related obligations by overseeing the design and implementation of EMEA remuneration policy in accordance with applicable regulations.

The MDCC directly retains its own independent compensation consultant, Semler Brossy Consulting Group LLC, who has no relationship with BlackRock, Inc. or the BlackRock, Inc. Board that would interfere with its ability to provide independent advice to the MDCC on compensation matters.

The BlackRock, Inc. Board has determined that all of the members of the MDCC are “independent” within the meaning of the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), which requires each meet a “non-employee director” standard.

The MDCC held 8 meetings during 2024. The MDCC charter is available on BlackRock, Inc.'s website (www.blackrock.com).

Through its regular reviews, the MDCC continues to be satisfied with the principles of BlackRock's compensation policy and approach.

(b) The ManCo's Board

The ManCo's Board in its supervisory function has the task of supervising, approving and providing oversight of the UCITS Remuneration Policy as it applies to the ManCo and its Identified Staff (as defined below).

The responsibilities of the supervisory function include:

- approve, maintain and oversee the implementation of the UCITS Remuneration Policy;
- determine and oversee the remuneration of the members of the management body, provided that insofar the relevant ManCo does not have a separate supervisory function, the remuneration of the member of the management body is determined by the MDCC;
- approve any subsequent material exemptions or changes to the UCITS Remuneration Policy and carefully consider and monitor their effects;
- take into account the inputs provided by all competent corporate functions (i.e., risk management, compliance, human resources, strategic planning, etc.) in the design and oversight of the UCITS Remuneration Policy.

Decision-making process

Remuneration decisions for employees are made once annually in January following the end of the performance year. This timing allows full-year financial results to be considered along with other non-financial goals and objectives. Although the framework for remuneration decision-making is tied to financial performance, significant discretion is used to determine individual variable remuneration based on achievement of strategic and operating results and other considerations such as management and leadership capabilities.

No set formulas are established and no fixed benchmarks are used in determining annual incentive awards. In determining specific individual remuneration amounts, a number of factors are considered including non-financial goals and objectives and overall financial and investment performance (including, where relevant, good outcomes for retail customers). These results are viewed in the aggregate without any specific weighting, and there is no direct correlation between any particular performance measure and the resulting annual incentive award. The variable remuneration awarded to any individual(s) for a particular performance year may also be zero.

Annual incentive awards are paid from a bonus pool.

The size of the projected bonus pool, including cash and equity awards, is reviewed throughout the year by the MDCC and the final total bonus pool is approved after year-end. As part of this review, the MDCC receives actual and projected financial information over the course of the year as well as final year-end information. The financial information that the MDCC receives and considers includes the current year projected income statement and other financial measures compared with prior year results and the current year budget. The MDCC additionally reviews other metrics of BlackRock's financial performance (e.g., net inflows of AUM and investment performance) as well as information regarding market conditions and competitive compensation levels.

The MDCC regularly considers management's recommendation as to the percentage of pre-incentive operating income that will be accrued and reflected as a compensation expense throughout the year for the cash portion of the total annual bonus pool (the "accrual rate"). The accrual rate of the cash portion of the total annual bonus pool may be modified by the MDCC during the year based on its review of the financial information described above. The MDCC does not apply any particular weighting or formula to the information it considers when determining the size of the total bonus pool or the accruals made for the cash portion of the total bonus pool.

Following the end of the performance year, the MDCC approves the final bonus pool amount.

As part of the year-end review process the Enterprise Risk and Regulatory Compliance departments report to the MDCC on any activities, incidents or events that warrant consideration in making compensation decisions.

Individuals are not involved in setting their own remuneration.

Control functions

Each of the control functions (Enterprise Risk, Legal & Compliance, Finance, Human Resources and Internal Audit) has its own organisational structure which is independent of the business units and therefore staff members in control functions are remunerated independently of the businesses they oversee. The head of each control function is either a member of the Global Executive Committee ("GEC"), the global management committee, or has a reporting obligation to the board of directors of BlackRock Group Limited, the parent company of all of BlackRock's EMEA regulated entities, including the ManCo.

Functional bonus pools are determined with reference to the performance of each individual function. The remuneration of the senior members of control functions is directly overseen by the MDCC.

Link between pay and performance

There is a clear and well-defined pay-for-performance philosophy and compensation programmes which are designed to meet the following key objectives as detailed below:

- appropriately balance BlackRock's financial results between shareholders and employees;
- attract, retain and motivate employees capable of making significant contributions to the long-term success of the business;
- align the interests of senior employees with those of shareholders by awarding BlackRock Inc.'s stock as a significant part of both annual and long-term incentive awards;
- control fixed costs by ensuring that compensation expense varies with profitability;
- link a significant portion of an employee's total compensation to the financial and operational performance of the business;
- promote sound and effective risk management across all risk categories, including sustainability risk;
- discourage excessive risk-taking (sustainability related or otherwise); and
- ensure that good outcomes are delivered for retail customers and that client interests are not negatively impacted by remuneration awarded on a short-term, mid-term and/or long-term basis.

Driving a high-performance culture is dependent on the ability to measure performance against objectives, values and behaviours in a clear and consistent way. Managers use a 5-point rating scale to provide an overall assessment of an employee's performance, and employees also provide a self-evaluation. The overall, final rating is reconciled during each employee's performance appraisal. Employees are assessed on the manner in which performance is attained as well as the absolute performance itself.

In keeping with the pay-for-performance philosophy, ratings are used to differentiate and reward individual performance – but don't pre-determine compensation outcomes. Compensation decisions remain discretionary and are made as part of the year-end compensation process.

When setting remuneration levels other factors are considered, as well as individual performance, which may include:

- the performance of the ManCo, the funds managed by the ManCo and/or the relevant functional department;
- factors relevant to an employee individually (e.g., relevant working arrangements (including part-time status if applicable); relationships with clients and colleagues; teamwork; skills; any conduct issues; and, subject to any applicable policy, the impact that any relevant leave of absence may have on contribution to the business);
- the management of risk within the risk profiles appropriate for BlackRock's clients;
- strategic business needs, including intentions regarding retention;
- market intelligence;
- criticality to business; and
- supporting the firm's approaches to environmental, social and governance factors and diversity, equity and inclusion.

A primary product tool is risk management and, while employees are compensated for strong performance in their management of client assets, they are required to manage risk within the risk profiles appropriate for their clients. Therefore, employees are not rewarded for engaging in high-risk transactions outside of established parameters. Remuneration practices do not provide undue incentives for short-term planning or short-term financial rewards, do not reward unreasonable risk and provide a reasonable balance between the many and substantial risks inherent within the business of investment management, risk management and advisory services.

BlackRock operates a total compensation model for remuneration which includes a base salary, which is contractual, and a discretionary bonus scheme.

BlackRock operates an annual discretionary bonus scheme. Although all employees are eligible to be considered for a discretionary bonus, there is no contractual obligation to make any award to an employee under its discretionary bonus scheme. In exercising discretion to award a discretionary bonus, the factors listed above (under the heading "Link between pay and performance") may be taken into account in addition to any other matters which become relevant to the exercise of discretion in the course of the performance year.

Discretionary bonus awards for all employees, including executive officers, are subject to a guideline that determines the portion paid in cash and the portion paid in BlackRock, Inc. stock and subject to additional vesting/clawback conditions. Stock awards are subject to further performance adjustment through variation in BlackRock, Inc.'s share price over the vesting period. As total annual compensation increases, a greater portion is deferred into stock. The MDCC adopted this approach in 2006 to substantially increase the retention value and shareholder alignment of the compensation package for eligible employees, including the executive officers. The portion deferred into stock vests into three equal instalments over the three years following grant.

Supplementary to the annual discretionary bonus as described above, equity awards may be made to select individuals to provide greater linkage with future business results. These long-term incentive awards have been established individually to provide meaningful incentive for continued performance over a multi-year period recognising the scope of the individual's role, business expertise and leadership skills.

Selected senior leaders are eligible to receive performance-adjusted equity-based awards from the "BlackRock Performance Incentive Plan" ("BPIP"). Awards made from the BPIP have a three-year performance period based on a measurement of As Adjusted Operating Margin¹ and Organic Revenue Growth². Determination of pay-out will be made based on the firm's achievement relative to target financial results at the conclusion of the performance period. The maximum number of shares that can be earned is 165% of the award in those situations where both metrics achieve pre-determined financial targets. No shares will be earned where the firm's financial performance in both of the above metrics is below a pre-determined performance threshold. These metrics have been selected as key measures of shareholder value which endure across market cycles.

² Organic Revenue Growth: Equal to net new base fees plus net new Aladdin revenue generated in the year (in dollars).

A limited number of investment professionals have a portion of their annual discretionary bonus (as described above) awarded as deferred cash that notionally tracks investment in selected products managed by the employee. The intention of these awards is to align investment professionals with the investment returns of the products they manage through the deferral of compensation into those products. Clients and external evaluators have increasingly viewed more favourably those products where key investors have "skin in the game" through significant personal investments.

Identified Staff

"Identified Staff" comprises the following categories of staff whose professional activities have a material impact on the risk profiles of the ManCo or the funds it manages:

- Board members (Executive and Non-Executive Directors);
- Conducting officers;
- Members of Senior Management; and
- Individuals responsible for internal senior management, risk takers, control functions.

The list of Identified Staff will be subject to regular review, being formally reviewed in the event of, but not limited to:

- organisational changes;
- new business initiatives;
- changes in significant influence function lists;
- changes in role responsibilities; and
- revised regulatory direction.

BlackRock applies the proportionality principle in respect of staff identified as "Identified Staff". BlackRock bases its proportionality approach on a combination of factors that it is entitled to take into account based on relevant guidelines. The application of proportionality has been assessed based on the criteria set down in the ESMA Guidelines - i.e., criteria in terms of size, internal organisation and nature, scope and complexity of the activities; group of persons, who have only collectively a material impact on the risk profile of the management company; and structure of the remuneration of identified staff.

Quantitative Remuneration Disclosure

The ManCo is required under the Directive to make quantitative disclosures of remuneration. These disclosures are made in line with BlackRock's interpretation of currently available regulatory guidance on quantitative remuneration disclosures. As market or regulatory practice develops BlackRock may consider it appropriate to make changes to the way in which quantitative remuneration disclosures are calculated. Where such changes are made, this may result in disclosures in relation to a fund not being comparable to the disclosures made in the prior year, or in relation to other BlackRock fund disclosures in that same year.

Remuneration information at an individual Fund level is not readily available. Disclosures are provided in relation to (a) the staff of the ManCo; (b) staff who are senior management; (c) staff who have the ability to materially affect the risk profile of the Fund; and (d) staff of companies to which portfolio management and risk management has been formally delegated.

All individuals included in the aggregated figures disclosed are rewarded in line with BlackRock's remuneration policy for their responsibilities across the relevant BlackRock business area. As all individuals have a number of areas of responsibilities, only the portion of remuneration for those individuals' services attributable to the ManCo is included in the aggregate figures disclosed.

Members of staff and senior management of the ManCo typically provide both UCITS and non-UCITS related services in respect of multiple funds, clients and functions of the ManCo and across the broader BlackRock group. Conversely, members of staff and senior management of the broader BlackRock group may provide both UCITS and non-UCITS related services in respect of multiple funds, clients and functions of the broader BlackRock group and of the ManCo. Therefore, the figures disclosed are a sum of individual's portion of remuneration attributable to the ManCo according to an objective apportionment methodology which acknowledges the multiple-service nature of the ManCo and the broader BlackRock group. Accordingly, the figures are not representative of any individual's actual remuneration or their remuneration structure.

The amount of the total remuneration awarded to the ManCo's staff in respect of the ManCo's financial year ending 31 December 2024 is USD 102.4 million. This figure is comprised of fixed remuneration of USD 37.2 million and variable remuneration of USD 65.2 million. There were a total of 4,206 beneficiaries of the remuneration described above.

The amount of the aggregate remuneration awarded by the ManCo in respect of the ManCo's financial year ending 31 December 2024, to its senior management was USD 14.3 million, and to other members of its staff whose actions potentially have a material impact on the risk profile of the ManCo or its funds was USD 16.4 million.

1. Accounting and Distribution Policies*

for the year ended 28 February 2025

Accounting Policies

- (a) The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice for Authorised Funds (the "SORP") issued by the Investment Management Association (now known as the Investment Association) in May 2014 and amended in June 2017.

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis in accordance with UK GAAP and the SORP. The Funds are able to meet all of their liabilities from their assets. The performance, marketability and risks of the Funds are reviewed on a regular basis throughout the financial period. Therefore, the Directors of the Manager believe that the Funds will continue in operational existence for a period of one year from the date of approval of these financial statements and are financially sound. The Directors of the Manager are satisfied that, at the time of approving the financial statements, it is appropriate to continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the financial statements of the Funds.

- (b) Dividends on quoted ordinary shares and preference shares are recognised when the securities are quoted ex-dividend. Where such securities are not quoted, dividends are recognised when the right to receive payment is established.

US REIT dividend revenue is accounted for partly as revenue and partly as capital, depending on the underlying REIT distribution. All REIT dividend revenue is recognised on an accruals basis.

Revenue from fixed interest securities is recognised on an effective interest rate basis.

Accrued interest purchased and sold on interest bearing securities is excluded from the capital cost of these securities and dealt with as part of the revenue of the Funds.

All distributions from Collective Investment Schemes ("CIS") are recognised when the securities are quoted ex-distribution. All distributions from holdings in CIS are treated as revenue with the exception of the equalisation element, which is treated as capital.

Any reported revenue from an offshore fund with reporting status from HMRC, in excess of any distribution received in the reporting period, is recognised as revenue no later than the date on which the reporting fund makes this information available. The equalisation element is treated as capital.

All revenue is recognised as a gross amount that takes account of any withholding taxes but excludes any other taxes such as attributable tax credits.

Revenue from securities lending is accounted for net of associated costs and is recognised on an accruals basis.

Returns from bond futures are streamed into revenue and capital components.

Returns from total return swaps in the form of dividends or interest received from the underlying security or index are recognised as revenue. Capital gains on the underlying security or index are treated as capital.

Bank interest is recognised on an accruals basis.

The Funds receive Manager's charge rebates from BlackRock related investments in the normal course of business. These are recognised on an accruals basis and are treated as revenue, unless it is the policy of the underlying fund to charge its fees to capital, in which case these rebates will be recognised as capital.

- (c) Ordinary stock dividends are recognised wholly as revenue and are based on the market value of the shares on the date they are quoted ex-dividend. Where an enhancement is offered, the amount by which the market value of the shares (on the date they are quoted ex-dividend) exceeds the cash dividend is taken to capital.

* The Accounting and Distribution Policies are an integral part of the notes for each funds' financial statements.

1. Accounting and Distribution Policies continued

- (d) The underlying circumstances behind both special dividends and share buy backs are reviewed on a case by case basis in determining whether the amount is revenue or capital in nature. Any tax treatment will follow the accounting treatment of the principal amount.
- (e) Underwriting commission is wholly recognised as revenue when the issue takes place, except where the Funds are required to take up some or all of the shares underwritten, in which case an appropriate proportion of the commission received is deducted from the cost of those shares.
- (f) All expenses, except those relating to the purchase and sale of investments are charged against revenue. All expenses are recognised on an accruals basis.
- (g) Provision for corporation tax is made at the current rate on the excess of taxable revenue over allowable expenses. Provision is made on all material timing differences arising from the different treatment of items for accounting and tax purposes. A deferred tax asset is recognised only to the extent that it is considered more likely than not that there will be taxable profits in the future against which the asset can be offset.
- (h) Where the end of the accounting year on the balance sheet date is a business day, the valuation point is 12 noon, and where the end of the accounting year on the balance sheet date is a non-business day, the valuation point is end of day. The end of the accounting period on the balance sheet date is the Valuation point (12 noon) where this is a business day or end of day where this is a non-business day. All investments are valued at their fair value as at the end of the accounting period. In the case of an investment which is not quoted, listed or dealt in on a recognised market, or in respect of which a listed, traded or dealt price or quotation is not available at the time of valuation, the fair value of such investment shall be estimated with care and in good faith by a competent professional person, body, firm or corporation including the Manager's pricing committee and such fair value shall be determined on the basis of the probable realisation value of the investment. The Manager shall be entitled to adopt an alternative method of valuing any particular asset if it considers that the methods of valuation set out above do not provide a fair valuation of a particular asset or liability.

For over the counter derivatives (e.g. credit default swaps, forward currency contracts, interest rate swaps, swaptions, TBA mortgage-backed securities, total return swaps and currency options), fair value is determined based on valuation pricing models which take into account relevant market inputs as well as the time values, liquidity and volatility factors underlying the positions. The fair value of exchange traded and over the counter derivatives represents the price that would be required to close out the contracts at the balance sheet date. Amounts due to and from an individual counterparty which falls under a legally enforceable master netting agreement are netted.

Investments in dual priced Collective Investment Schemes have been valued at the latest available published bid price market values. Investments in single priced Collective Investment Schemes have been valued at the latest available published market values.

- (i) Any transactions in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rates of exchange ruling on the date of any such transaction. Assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the exchange rates ruling at 12 noon on the last business day of the accounting period. Revenue items in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the exchange rate when the revenue is received.
- (j) Where appropriate, certain permitted financial instruments such as derivatives are used for both efficient portfolio management and for the purpose of achieving the investment objective of the Funds. Where such financial instruments are used to protect or enhance revenue, the revenue and expenses derived therefrom are included in 'Revenue' in the Statement of Total Return. Where such financial instruments are used to protect or enhance capital, the gains and losses derived therefrom are included in 'Net capital gains/(losses)' in the Statement of Total Return.

1. Accounting and Distribution Policies continued

Revenue received in the form of premiums on written options are recognised as revenue on a straight line basis over the period of the contract, with the balance recognised as capital. If the contract is sold or closed out, the unamortised portion of the premium remains in capital.

- (k) Cash and bank balances consist of deposits held on call with banks and cash held with clearing brokers and counterparties. Cash equivalents are short-term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.
- (l) Cash collateral provided by the Funds is identified on the Balance Sheet as pledged cash collateral and is not included as a component of cash and cash equivalents.

For collateral other than cash provided by the Funds, the party to whom the collateral is provided has the right by contract to sell or repledge the collateral but has an obligation to return equivalent securities to the Funds on maturity or sale of the contract. The Funds classify these assets on their Balance Sheet separately from other assets and identifies the asset as pledged investments. Such assets are valued consistently with the accounting policies listed above.

Cash collateral provided to the Funds by counterparties is identified in the Balance Sheet as cash collateral payable. The Funds may reinvest this cash collateral and the assets purchased are included in investment assets or cash equivalents on the Balance Sheet.

For collateral received from counterparties other than cash, a disclosure of the collateral provided is made in the notes to the financial statements.

- (m) With the exception of the BlackRock Sterling Short Duration Credit Fund and the BlackRock Sterling Strategic Bond Fund each Fund operates a single swing pricing methodology where the price of each unit may be adjusted to protect the interests of non-dealing unitholders' investment from the costs of buying or selling investments that result from other unitholders joining or leaving a Fund. The Manager will not benefit from the operation of swing pricing and it will only be imposed in a manner deemed to be fair to all unitholders and solely for the purposes of reducing dilution. The Funds began to use single pricing and the single swing pricing methodology with effect from 27 November 2023. Historic performance data published prior to that date will be based on the previous dual pricing valuation methodology. For more details on the determination of unit price, and indicative swing factors and thresholds please refer to the latest Fund prospectus.

Distribution Policies

- (n) The ordinary element of stock dividends is treated as revenue but does not form part of the distribution.
- (o) Special dividends and share buy backs recognised as revenue form part of the distribution.
- (p) Returns from bond futures recognised as revenue from long positions form part of the distribution. Amounts recognised as revenue from short positions reduce the amounts available for distribution.
- (q) All of the net revenue available for distribution at the final accounting period end will be distributed to unitholders with the balance attributable to accumulation unitholders retained within the Funds. In order to conduct a controlled dividend flow to unitholders, interim distributions may be made at the Manager's discretion, up to a maximum of the distributable revenue available for the period. Should expenses and taxation together exceed revenue, there will be no distribution and the shortfall will be met from capital.
- (r) The MyMap 3 Fund, the MyMap 3 Select ESG Fund, MyMap 4 Select Income Fund, the BlackRock Systematic Multi Allocation Credit Fund, the BlackRock Sterling Short Duration Credit Fund and the BlackRock Sterling Strategic Bond Fund have all satisfied the qualifying investments tests as specified in S468L ICTA 1988 at all times throughout their distribution periods. As such, any revenue available for distribution will be paid as an interest distribution.

1. Accounting and Distribution Policies continued

- (s) Whilst all other sub-funds within the Trust retain any equalisation received from investments in underlying collective investment scheme holdings in capital, the BlackRock MyMap 4 Select Income Fund will include any such equalisation in the distribution. Equalisation is inherently capital in nature, hence there is a reconciliation note in the relevant fund's distribution note to explain further.

2. Financial Instruments and Risks*

Introduction and overview

The Funds' investment activities expose them to the various types of risk which are associated with the financial instruments and markets in which they invest. The following information is not intended to be a comprehensive summary of all risks and investors should refer to the Prospectus of each Fund for a more detailed discussion of the risks inherent in investing in the Funds.

Risk management framework

The Manager has delegated the day-to-day administration of the investment programme to the Investment Manager. The Investment Manager is also responsible for ensuring that the Funds are managed within the terms of their investment guidelines and limits set out in the Prospectus. The Manager reserves to itself the investment performance, product risk monitoring and oversight and the responsibility for the monitoring and oversight of regulatory and operational risk for the Funds.

The Manager has appointed a risk manager who has responsibility for the daily risk management process with assistance from key risk management personnel of the Investment Manager, including members of the BlackRock Risk and Quantitative Analysis Group ("RQA Group") which is a centralised group which performs an independent risk management function. The RQA Group independently identifies, measures and monitors investment risk. The RQA Group tracks the actual risk management practices being deployed across the different funds. By breaking down the components of the process, the RQA Group has the ability to determine if the appropriate risk management processes are in place for the Funds. This captures the risk management tools employed, how the levels of risk are controlled, ensuring risk/return is considered in portfolio construction and reviewing outcomes.

The risk profiles of the Funds are set out as follows:

a) Market risk

Market risk arises mainly from uncertainty about future values of financial instruments influenced by other price, currency and interest rate movements. It represents the potential loss the Funds may suffer through holding market positions in the face of market movements. The Funds are exposed to market risk by virtue of their investments in collective investment schemes, equities, warrants, rights, corporate bonds, government bonds, futures contracts, forward currency contracts, options, total return swaps, interest rate swaps, inflation swaps and credit default swaps.

A key metric the RQA Group uses to measure market risk is Value-at-Risk ("VaR") which encompasses price, currency and interest rate risk. VaR is a statistical risk measure that estimates the potential portfolio loss from adverse market moves in an ordinary market environment. VaR analysis reflects the interdependencies between risk variables, unlike a traditional sensitivity analysis.

The VaR calculations are based on an adjusted historical simulation model with a confidence level of 99%, a holding period of one day and a historical observation period of not less than one year (250 days). A VaR number is defined at a specified probability and a specified time horizon. A 99% one day VaR means that the expectation is that 99% of the time over a one day period a Fund will lose less than this number in percentage terms. Therefore, higher VaR numbers indicate higher risk.

* The information relating to Financial Instruments and Risks is an integral part of the notes for each funds' financial statements.

2. Financial Instruments and Risks continued

It is noted that the use of the VaR methodology has limitations, namely that the use of historical market data as a basis for estimating future events does not encompass all possible scenarios, particularly those that are of an extreme nature and that the use of a specified confidence level (e.g. 99%) does not take into account losses that occur beyond this level. There is some probability that the loss could be greater than the VaR amounts. These limitations and the nature of the VaR measure mean that the Funds can neither guarantee that losses will not exceed the VaR amounts indicated, nor that losses in excess of the VaR amounts will not occur more frequently.

The one day VaR as at 28 February 2025 and 29 February 2024 based on a 99% confidence level is outlined in the table below:

² Fund launched on 17th January 2025 hence no comparatives are available.

i) Market risk arising from foreign currency risk

Exposure to foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates.

2. Financial Instruments and Risks continued

The net assets of the Funds are denominated mainly in Sterling, therefore the Balance Sheet and Statement of Total Return are unlikely to be directly affected by currency movements.

Management of foreign currency risk

Foreign currency exposures are managed within parameters utilising forward currency contracts. The details of the contracts in place at the year end are disclosed in the portfolio statement of each Fund.

ii) Market risk arising from other price risk

Exposure to other price risk

Other price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices (other than those arising from interest rate risk or currency risk), whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual financial instrument or its issuer, or factors affecting similar financial instruments traded in the market. Local, regional or global events such as war, acts of terrorism, the spread of infectious illness or other public health issue, recessions, or other events could have a significant impact on the Funds and the market price of their investments.

The Funds are exposed to other price risk arising from their investments. The exposure of the Funds to other price risk is the market value of the investments held as shown in the Portfolio Statement of each Fund.

Management of other price risk

The Investment Manager manages the Funds' other price risk on a daily basis in accordance with their investment objectives.

By diversifying the portfolios, where this is appropriate and consistent with the Funds' objectives, the risk that a price change of a particular investment will have a material impact on the Net Asset Value ("NAV") of the Funds is minimised. The investment concentrations within the portfolios are disclosed in the Portfolio Statement of each Fund by investment type.

The other price risk inherent in holdings in CIS is monitored by the Investment Manager by understanding the investment objectives of the underlying funds as well as their internal control policies and regular risk and performance reporting.

iii) Market risk arising from interest rate risk

Exposure to interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

The Funds are exposed to interest rate risk on their cash and bank balances held at The Bank of New York Mellon (International) Limited, amounts held at futures clearing houses and brokers, cash equivalent holdings and their investments in fixed and floating rate interest bearing securities where the value of these securities may fluctuate as a result of a change in interest rates. Cash held on deposit at The Bank of New York Mellon (International) Limited receives/incurs interest at the prevailing daily rate which may be negative depending on the currency in which the cash is held.

2. Financial Instruments and Risks continued

The Funds also have indirect exposure to interest rate risk through investments into CIS, whereby the value of the underlying asset may fluctuate as a result of a change in interest rates and through their investments in futures contracts, whereby the value of an underlying asset may fluctuate as a result of a change in interest rates through their investments on interest-bearing securities.

Management of interest rate risk

Interest rate risk exposure is managed by constantly monitoring the position for deviations outside a pre-determined tolerance level and, when necessary, rebalancing back to the original desired parameters.

b) Counterparty credit risk

Exposure to counterparty credit risk

Counterparty credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation.

The Funds are exposed to counterparty credit risk from the parties with which they trade and will bear the risk of settlement default.

Management of counterparty credit risk

Counterparty credit risk is monitored and managed by BlackRock's RQA Counterparty & Concentration Risk Team. The team is headed by BlackRock's Chief Counterparty Credit Officer who reports directly to the Global Head of RQA. Credit authority resides with the Chief Counterparty Credit Officer and selected team members to whom specific credit authority has been delegated. As such, counterparty approvals may be granted by the Chief Counterparty Credit Officer or by identified RQA Credit Risk Officers who have been formally delegated authority by the Chief Counterparty Credit Officer as deemed appropriate.

BlackRock's RQA Counterparty & Concentration Risk Team completes a formal review of each new counterparty, monitors and reviews all approved counterparties on an ongoing basis and maintains an active oversight of counterparty exposures.

The Manager maintains a list of approved counterparties. This list is regularly monitored and revised for changes based on the counterparty's creditworthiness, market reputation and expectations of future financial performance. Transactions will only be opened with financial intermediaries on the approved counterparties list.

i) Exchange Traded Financial Derivative Instruments

The Funds' holdings in futures contracts expose the Funds to counterparty credit risk.

Management of counterparty credit risk related to futures contracts

The exposure is limited by trading the contracts through a clearing house. The Funds' exposure to counterparty credit risk on contracts in which they currently have a gain position is reduced by such gains received in cash from the counterparty under the daily mark-to market mechanism on exchange traded futures contracts (variation margin). The Funds' exposure to credit risk on contracts in which they currently have a loss position is equal to the amount of margin posted to the counterparty which has not been transferred to the exchange under the daily mark-to-market mechanism. The counterparties for futures contracts are Goldman Sachs and HSBC.

2. Financial Instruments and Risks continued

Margin is paid or received on futures and exchange traded options to cover any exposure by the counterparty or the Funds to each other. Margin receivable from the Funds' clearing brokers and the counterparty is included in "Cash and bank balances" on the Balance Sheet. Margin payable to the Funds' clearing brokers and the counterparty is included in "Amounts held at futures clearing houses and brokers" on the Balance Sheet.

Counterparty exposure has not been disclosed for exchange traded derivatives as the exchange requirements in respect of collateral mean that, in the opinion of the Manager, the counterparty risk is mitigated.

ii) Over-the-Counter ("OTC") Financial Derivative Instruments ("FDIs")

The Funds' holdings in OTC FDIs also expose the Funds to counterparty credit risk.

Counterparty credit risk arises from the failure of the counterparty to perform according to the terms of the contract. The Fund's exposure to counterparty credit risk is limited to the contracts in which it currently has a gain position reduced by the cash collateral received from the counterparty or to counterparties which have received collateral from the Funds.

The Funds' holdings in contracts for difference ("CFDs"), credit default swaps, inflation swaps, interest rate swaps and total return swaps expose the Funds to counterparty credit risk. Counterparty credit risk arises from the failure of the counterparty to perform according to the terms of the contract. The Funds' exposure to counterparty credit risk is limited to the contracts in which they currently have a gain position reduced by the cash collateral received from the counterparty or to counterparties which have received collateral from the Funds.

All OTC FDIs are entered into by the Funds under an International Swaps and Derivatives Associations, Inc. Master Agreement ("ISDA Master Agreement") or similar agreement. An ISDA Master Agreement is a bilateral agreement between the Funds and a counterparty that governs OTC FDIs (including total return swaps) entered into by the parties. The parties' exposures under the ISDA Master Agreement are netted and collateralised together, therefore any collateral disclosures provided are in respect of all OTC FDIs entered into by the Funds under the ISDA Master Agreement, not just total return swaps. All collateral received/posted by the Funds under the ISDA Master Agreement is transferred bilaterally under a title transfer arrangement.

The carrying value of financial assets together with cash best represents the Fund's gross maximum exposure to counterparty credit risk at the reporting date, before including the effect of ISDA Master Agreements and close-out netting, which would reduce the overall counterparty credit risk exposure. Cash held as security by the counterparty to derivative contracts is subject to the credit risk of the counterparty.

The Funds' maximum exposure to counterparty credit risk from holding forward currency contracts will be equal to the notional amount of the currency and any net unrealised gains or losses as disclosed in the portfolio statement of each Fund.

2. Financial Instruments and Risks continued

Management of counterparty credit risk related to OTC FDIs

For CFDs and total return swaps, cash movements take place on a daily basis, above a certain threshold for each counterparty. The risk is further mitigated as contracts are reset on a monthly basis (1 year rolling maturity at each monthly reset) with the gain or loss being realised. The Funds are required to maintain collateral with the counterparties to secure these financial instruments.

Forward currency contracts do not require variation margin and thus the counterparty credit risk is monitored through the BlackRock RQA Counterparty & Concentration Risk Team which monitors the creditworthiness of the counterparty. The counterparties for forward currency contracts are disclosed in the portfolio statement of each Fund.

The lowest credit rating of any one counterparty as at 28 February 2025 is BBB+ (29 February 2024: A) (Standard & Poor's rating).

The following table details the number of counterparties the Funds are exposed to by OTC FDIs and the maximum exposure (which is calculated on a net basis) to any one counterparty.

iii) Trustee and Custodian

The Funds' Trustee is BNY Mellon Trust & Depositary (UK) Limited (the "Trustee"). The Trustee has delegated the function of custodian of the property of the Funds to The Bank of New York Mellon (International) Limited (the "Custodian").

Substantially all of the investments other than FDIs of the Funds are held by the Custodian at year end. Investments are segregated from the assets of the Custodian, with ownership rights remaining with the Funds. Bankruptcy or insolvency of the Custodian may cause the Funds' rights with respect to their investments held by the Custodian to be delayed or limited. The maximum exposure to this risk is the total amount of equity and bond investments disclosed in the portfolio statement of each Fund.

2. Financial Instruments and Risks continued

The Funds will be exposed to the credit risk of the Custodian, or any depositary used by the Trustee regarding cash balances held in accounts with same. In the event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Custodian or any depositary used by the Trustee, the Funds will be treated as a general creditor of the Trustee.

Management of counterparty credit risk related to the Trustee and Custodian

To mitigate the Funds' credit risk with respect to the Trustee, the Investment Manager of the Funds employs specific procedures to ensure that the Trustee employed is a reputable institution and that the associated credit risk is acceptable to the Funds. The Funds only transact with counterparties that are regulated entities subject to prudential supervision, or with high credit-ratings assigned by international credit-rating agencies.

The long term credit rating of the parent company of the Trustee and Custodian, The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation, as at 28 February 2025 was A (29 February 2024: A) (Standard & Poor's rating).

iv) Counterparties

All transactions in listed securities are settled/paid for upon delivery using approved brokers. The risk of default is considered minimal, as delivery of securities sold is only made once the broker has received payment. Payment is made on a purchase once the securities have been received by the broker. The trade will fail if either party fails to meet its obligation.

Counterparty credit risk arising on transactions with brokers relates to transactions awaiting settlement. Risk relating to unsettled transactions is considered small due to the short settlement period involved and the high credit quality of the brokers used.

Management of counterparty credit risk related to Counterparties

The Manager monitors the credit rating and financial position of the brokers used to further mitigate this risk.

v) Debt securities

Issuer credit risk is the default risk of one of the issuers of any securities held by the Funds.

Bonds or other debt securities involve credit risk to the issuer which may be evidenced by the issuer's credit rating. Securities which are subordinated and/or have a lower credit rating are generally considered to have a higher credit risk and a greater possibility of default than more highly rated securities. A number of the Funds invest into sovereign and corporate debt which exposes the Funds to the risk that the issuer of the bonds may default on interest or principal payments.

Management of counterparty credit risk related to debt securities

To manage this risk the Investment Manager invests in a wide range of securities, subject to the investment objectives of each Fund and monitors the credit ratings of the investments as disclosed in each Fund's portfolio statement. The ratings of the debt securities are continually monitored by the BlackRock Portfolio Management Group.

2. Financial Instruments and Risks continued

The following tables detail the credit rating profile of the debt securities held by the Funds as a percentage of the NAV as at the Balance Sheet date.

vi) Securities lending

The BlackRock Sterling Short Duration Credit Fund, the BlackRock Sterling Strategic Bond Fund, BlackRock ESG Screened and Selected Strategic Growth Fund, BlackRock Systematic Multi Allocation Credit Fund, BlackRock Global Smaller Companies Fund, MyMap 4 Fund, MyMap 4 Select Income Fund, MyMap 5 Fund, MyMap 6 Fund and the MyMap 7 Select ESG Fund engaged in securities lending activities which exposed the Funds to counterparty credit risk.

The maximum exposure to the Funds was equal to the value of the securities loaned.

Securities lending transactions entered into by the Funds were subject to a written legal agreement between the Funds and the Stock Lending Agent, BlackRock Advisors (UK) Limited, a related party to the Funds, and separately between the Stock Lending Agent and the approved borrowing counterparty. Collateral received in exchange for securities lent was transferred under a title transfer arrangement and was delivered to and held in an account with a tri-party collateral manager in the name of the Trustee on behalf of the Funds. Collateral received was segregated from the assets belonging to the Funds' Trustee or the Stock Lending Agent.

c) Liquidity risk

Exposure to liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Funds will encounter difficulties in meeting their obligations associated with financial liabilities.

Liquidity risk to the Funds arises from the redemption requests of unitholders and the liquidity of the underlying investments the Funds are invested in. The Funds' unitholders may redeem their units on the close of any daily dealing deadline for cash equal to a proportionate share of each Fund's NAV. The Funds are therefore potentially exposed to the liquidity risk of meeting the unitholders' redemptions and may need to sell assets at prevailing market prices to meet liquidity demands.

The Funds are also exposed to the liquidity risk of daily margin calls on derivatives.

All non-derivative financial liabilities including distributions payable held by the Funds as at 28 February 2025 and 29 February 2024, based on contractual maturities, fall due within one to three months, with the exception of corporation tax payable and deferred taxation which fall due within nine to twelve months.

Management of liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is minimised by holding sufficient liquid investments which can be readily realised to meet liquidity demands.

At times of excessive redemptions the Manager may decide to defer redemptions at any valuation point to the next valuation point where the requested aggregate redemptions exceed 10 per cent of a Fund's NAV. This will therefore allow the Manager to protect the interests of continuing unitholders by allowing the Manager to match the sale of scheme property to the level of redemptions. This should reduce the impact of dilution on the Funds. All unitholders who have sought to redeem units at any valuation point at which redemptions are deferred will be treated consistently and any redemption requests received in the meantime will not be processed until the redemption requests that have been deferred to the subsequent valuation points have been processed.

The Funds' liquidity risks are managed on a daily basis by the Investment Manager in accordance with established policies and procedures in place. The portfolio managers review daily forward looking cash reports which project cash obligations. These reports allow them to manage the Funds' cash obligations.

d) Valuation of financial instruments

The Fund classifies financial instruments measured at fair value using a fair value hierarchy. The fair value hierarchy has the following categories:

2. Financial Instruments and Risks continued

Level 1 – Quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets

A financial instrument is regarded as quoted in an active market if quoted prices are readily and regularly available and those prices represent actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis. The Fund does not adjust the quoted price for these instruments.

Level 2 – Valuation techniques using observable inputs

This category includes instruments valued using quoted prices in active markets for similar instruments; quoted prices for similar instruments in markets that are considered less than active; or other valuation techniques where all significant inputs are directly or indirectly observable from market data.

Valuation techniques used for non-standardised financial instruments such as OTC derivatives, include the use of comparable recent arm's length transactions, reference to other instruments that are substantially the same, discounted cash flow analysis, option pricing models and other valuation techniques commonly used by market participants making the maximum use of market inputs and relying as little as possible on entity determined inputs.

Level 3 – Valuation techniques using significant unobservable inputs

This category includes all instruments where the valuation techniques used include inputs not based on market data and these inputs could have a significant impact on the instrument's valuation.

This category also includes instruments that are valued based on quoted prices for similar instruments where significant entity determined adjustments or assumptions are required to reflect differences between the instruments and instruments for which there is no active market.

The level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement is categorised in its entirety is determined on the basis of the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. For this purpose, the significance of an input is assessed against the fair value measurement in its entirety. If a fair value measurement uses observable inputs that require significant adjustment based on unobservable inputs, that measurement is a level 3 measurement.

Assessing the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgement, considering factors specific to the asset or liability. The determination of what constitutes 'observable' inputs requires significant judgement by the Investment Manager. The Investment Manager considers observable inputs to be that market data that is readily available, regularly distributed or updated, reliable and verifiable, not proprietary, and provided by independent sources that are actively involved in the relevant market.

e) Global exposure

The Manager is required by the COLL Sourcebook to employ a risk management process in respect of the Funds which enables it to accurately monitor and manage the global exposure from FDIs.

The Manager uses the Absolute VaR methodology to measure the Funds' global exposure.

For Absolute VaR, the monthly VaR will not exceed 20% of the Funds' NAV. Where a VaR calculation is performed using a horizon other than the one month regulatory limit, this 20% limit will be rescaled to reflect the appropriate risk horizon period as directed by the relevant regulatory guidelines. Utilisation refers to the level of risk taken in this context.

The tables below detail the highest, lowest and average utilisation of the VaR limit, expressed as a percentage of the respective absolute VaR regulatory limit.

28 February 2025

Fund	Highest utilisation of the VaR limit	Lowest utilisation of the VaR limit	Average utilisation of the VaR limit
BlackRock Sterling Short Duration Credit Fund	12.75%	6.04%	8.96%
BlackRock Sterling Strategic Bond Fund	23.94%	13.65%	18.14%
BlackRock ESG Screened and Selected Strategic Growth Fund	28.19%	15.44%	21.18%
BlackRock Systematic Multi Allocation Credit Fund	52.54%	50.38%	51.19%

29 February 2024

Fund	Highest utilisation of the VaR limit	Lowest utilisation of the VaR limit	Average utilisation of the VaR limit
BlackRock Sterling Short Duration Credit Fund	19.44%	11.41%	15.27%
BlackRock Sterling Strategic Bond Fund	29.98%	19.02%	24.46%
BlackRock ESG Screened and Selected Strategic Growth Fund	32.21%	16.55%	22.59%
BlackRock Systematic Multi Allocation Credit Fund	53.11%	50.40%	51.78%

The exposures to FDIs at year end are marked on the relevant Fund's portfolio statement.

f) Leverage

The use of derivatives may expose Funds to a higher degree of risk. In particular, derivative contracts can be highly volatile and the amount of initial margin is generally small relative to the size of the contract so that transactions may be leveraged in terms of market exposure. A relatively small market movement may have a potentially larger impact on derivatives than on standard bonds or equities. Leveraged derivative positions can therefore increase a Fund's volatility.

The leverage is calculated on a gross exposure basis, by taking the sum of the notional values of the derivatives used by a Fund, without netting, and is expressed as a percentage of the NAV.

The average level of leverage employed during the year by the BlackRock Sterling Short Duration Credit Fund was 107.04% (29 February 2024: 117.37%), BlackRock Sterling Strategic Bond Fund was 157.31% (29 February 2024: 193.84%) BlackRock ESG Screened and Selected Strategic Growth Fund was 66.75% (29 February 2024: 56.77%) and the BlackRock Systematic Multi Allocation Credit Fund was 130.07% (29 February 2024: 134.45%).

However, in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, the Fund will invest, where possible, in classes of the underlying funds which are not subject to any management charges. Alternatively, where this is not possible, the Manager will rebate management charges to the Fund. The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

For the Fund's investment transactions in debt instruments any applicable transaction charges form part of the dealing spread for these instruments. Transactions in money market instruments to manage the Fund's daily liquidity position are excluded from the analysis.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above. The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the period.

During the year the Fund utilised FDIs including interest rate swaps and futures covering different underlying asset classes. The settlement values for opening and closing derivative positions are not comparable to principal values for transactions in direct holding investments and therefore purchase and sale amounts for derivative transactions are not quantified in the analysis above. Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above.

14. Portfolio Transaction Costs continued

Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.33% (29 February 2024: 0.07%).

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

For the Fund's investment transactions in debt instruments any applicable transaction charges form part of the dealing spread for these instruments. Transactions in money market instruments to manage the Fund's daily liquidity position are excluded from the analysis.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above. The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the period.

During the year the Fund utilised FDIs including credit default swaps, inflation swaps, interest rate swaps and futures covering different underlying asset classes. The settlement values for opening and closing derivative positions are not comparable to principal values for transactions in direct holding investments and therefore purchase and sale amounts for derivative transactions are not quantified in the analysis above. Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above.

Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.44% (29 February 2024: 0.13%).

Unless otherwise stated, all securities are either listed on a recognised exchange, traded on an eligible securities market or are permitted collective investment schemes.

Underlying exposure has been calculated according to the guidelines issued by the European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA") (as adopted by the FCA) and represents the market value of an equivalent position in the assets underlying each financial derivative instrument.

The counterparties for the forward currency contracts are Deutsche Bank AG and Royal Bank of Scotland Plc.

The total return swaps ("TRS") shown in the portfolio statement starting on page 137 are expressed at both their mark-to-market and original notional value, which when added together represent the current notional value of the TRS. The current notional value of a TRS represents the reference amount used to calculate payments between the counterparties to the TRS. The full notional value represents the economic interest in the security underlying the TRS, but does not change hands in full between the counterparties.

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

For the Fund's investment transactions in debt and money market instruments any applicable transaction charges form part of the dealing spread for these instruments. Transactions in money market instruments to manage the Fund's daily liquidity position are excluded from the analysis.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

During the year the Fund utilised FDIs including futures, inflation swaps and total return swaps covering different underlying asset classes. The settlement values for opening and closing derivative positions are not comparable to principal values for transactions in direct holding investments and therefore purchase and sale amounts for derivative transactions are not quantified in the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.25% (29 February 2024: 0.04%).

15. Units in Issue

The movement in units in issue for the year ended 28 February 2025 is as follows:

	I Accumulation Units	X Accumulation Units	D Accumulation Units
Balance at the beginning of the year	1,000	68,029,419	1,822,862
Issued during the year	1,415,832	11,976,047	293,368

Balance at the end of the year	1,416,832	77,250,254	1,560,213

Revenue is allocated each day pro rata to the capital value of assets attributable to each class and taxation is computed by reference to the net revenue after expenses attributable to each class. The distribution per unit class is given in the distribution table. All unit classes have the same rights on winding up.

16. Post Balance Sheet Events

There have been no significant events subsequent to the year end, which, in the opinion of the Manager, may have had an impact on the Financial Statements for the year ended 28 February 2025.

15. Related Parties

Parties are considered to be related if one party has the ability to control the other party or exercise significant influence over the other party in making financial or operational decisions.

The following entities were related parties of the Fund during the year ended 28 February 2025:

Manager/Registrar:	BlackRock Fund Managers Limited
Investment Manager:	BlackRock Investment Management (UK) Limited
Stock Lending Agent:	BlackRock Advisors (UK) Limited

The Manager acts as either principal or agent for the Trustee in respect of all transactions of units of the Fund. The aggregate monies received through issue and paid through cancellation of units are disclosed in the Statement of Change in Net Assets Attributable to Unitholders and note 8. Any amounts due to or from the Manager at the year end are disclosed in notes 9 and 12. Management fees and registration fees paid to the Manager are shown in note 5. The balances due at the year end in respect of these fees are shown in note 12. Securities lending revenue earned by the Fund is disclosed in note 4.

For holdings in Institutional Cash Series plc ("ICS"), there will be no initial charges or redemption charges payable on investments in the Fund, however, duties and charges may apply. ICS will be subject to fees and expenses which may include fixed management fees, performance fees, administration fees and custodial fees.

The Fund may invest in other Collective Investment Schemes ("CIS"), which may or may not be operated and/or managed by an affiliate of the Manager. As an investor in such other CIS, in addition to the fees, costs and expenses payable by a unitholder in the Fund, each unitholder may also indirectly bear a portion of the fees, costs and expenses of the underlying CIS, including management, investment management and administration and other expenses. However, in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, the Fund will invest, where possible, in classes of the underlying funds which are not subject to any management charges. Alternatively, where this is not possible, the Manager will rebate management charges to the Fund. The Fund will not be subject to any preliminary/initial sales fee in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, although it may be subject to duties and charges in respect of subscriptions and redemptions in such investment funds.

As at 28 February 2025, none of the unitholders and 29 February 2024 the following unitholders:

- (i) are funds managed by the BlackRock Group or are affiliates of BlackRock Inc. or
- (ii) are investors, other than those included in (i) above, who held 51% or more of the voting units in issue in the Fund and are as a result, considered to be a related party to the Fund.

Total transaction costs as a % of average net assets		0.00%		0.00%

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

For the Fund's investment transactions in debt instruments any applicable transaction charges form part of the dealing spread for these instruments. Transactions in money market instruments to manage the Fund's daily liquidity position are excluded from the analysis.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

During the year the Fund utilised FDIs including futures contracts. The settlement values for opening and closing derivative positions are not comparable to principal values for transactions in direct holding investments and therefore purchase and sale amounts for derivative transactions are not quantified in the analysis above.

16. Portfolio Transaction Costs continued

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.39% (29 February 2024: 0.07%).

17. Units in Issue

About the Fund

Risk and Reward Profile

- The risk indicator was calculated incorporating simulated historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.
- The lowest category does not mean risk free.
- The use of derivatives will impact the value of the Fund and may expose the Fund to a higher degree of risk. Derivatives are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the asset on which they are based and can increase the size of losses and gains, resulting in greater fluctuations in the value of the Fund. The impact to the Fund can be greater where derivatives are used in an extensive or complex way.

13. Portfolio Transaction Costs

For the period from 28 May 2024 to 28 February 2025

Purchases (excluding derivatives)	Direct Transaction Costs
	Transaction Value £000's	Commissions £000's	%	Taxes £000's	%
Equity instruments	14,410	3	0.02	18	0.12
Total purchases	14,410	3		18
Total purchases including transaction costs	14,431

Sales (excluding derivatives)	Direct Transaction Costs
	Transaction Value £000's	Commissions £000's	%	Taxes £000's	%
Equity instruments	3,590	1	0.03	–	–
Total sales	3,590	1		–
Total sales net of transaction costs	3,589
Total transaction costs		4		18
Total transaction costs as a % of average net assets		0.04%		0.16%

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

Separately identifiable direct transaction costs (such as commissions and taxes) are attributable to the Fund's purchase and sale of equity instruments. Additionally, for equity shares there is a dealing spread cost (the difference between the buying and selling prices) which will be incurred on purchase and sale transactions.

For the Fund's investment transactions in money market instruments any applicable transaction charges form part of the dealing spread for these instruments. Transactions in money market instruments to manage the Fund's daily liquidity position are excluded from the analysis.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.12%.

12. Related Parties continued

The Fund may invest in other Collective Investment Schemes (“CIS”), which may or may not be operated and/or managed by an affiliate of the Manager. As an investor in such other CIS, in addition to the fees, costs and expenses payable by a unitholder in the Fund, each unitholder may also indirectly bear a portion of the fees, costs and expenses of the underlying CIS, including management, investment management and administration and other expenses. However, in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, the Fund will invest, where possible, in classes of the underlying funds which are not subject to any management charges. Alternatively, where this is not possible, the Manager will rebate management charges to the Fund. The Fund will not be subject to any preliminary/initial sales fee in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, although it may be subject to duties and charges in respect of subscriptions and redemptions in such investment funds.

13. Portfolio Transaction Costs

For the period from 17 January 2025 to 28 February 2025

	Direct Transaction Costs
	Transaction Value £000's	Commissions £000's	%	Taxes £000's	%
Purchases (excluding derivatives)
Equity instruments	16,554	6	0.04	10	0.06
Total purchases	16,554	6		10
Total purchases including transaction costs	16,570

	Direct Transaction Costs
	Transaction Value £000's	Commissions £000's	%	Taxes £000's	%
Sales (excluding derivatives)
Equity instruments	776	–	–	–	–
Total sales	776	–		–
Total sales net of transaction costs	776
Total transaction costs		6		10
Total transaction costs as a % of average net assets		0.04%		0.06%

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

Separately identifiable direct transaction costs (such as commissions and taxes) are attributable to the Fund's purchase and sale of equity instruments. Additionally, for equity shares there is a dealing spread cost (the difference between the buying and selling prices) which will be incurred on purchase and sale transactions.

For the Fund's investment transactions in money market instruments any applicable transaction charges form part of the dealing spread for these instruments. Transactions in money market instruments to manage the Fund's daily liquidity position are excluded from the analysis.

Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.15%.

The distribution per unit class is given in the distribution table. All unit classes have the same rights on winding up.

15. Post Balance Sheet Events

¹ The return after charges figures are based on the net asset value reported for financial statements purposes and are not the same as the performance returns figures quoted in the Performance Table and the Investment Report which are based on swing pricing. The Funds began to use single pricing and the single swing pricing methodology with effect from 27 November 2023. Historic performance data published prior to that date will be based on the previous dual pricing valuation methodology which were based on bid-to-bid dealing prices.

² Operating charges are annualised and exclude portfolio trade-related costs, except costs paid to the custodian/depositary and entry/exit charges paid to an underlying collective investment scheme (if any).

³ Direct transaction costs are annualised and principally comprise commissions and taxes, attributable to the Fund's purchase and sale of collective investment schemes. See note 13 for further details.

13. Portfolio Transaction Costs continued

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

Transactions in money market instruments to manage the Fund's daily liquidity position are excluded from the analysis.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.06% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

The following entities were related parties of the Fund during the year ended 28 February 2025:

Manager/Registrar:	BlackRock Fund Managers Limited
Investment Manager:	BlackRock Investment Management (UK) Limited
Stock Lending Agent:	BlackRock Advisors (UK) Limited

The Manager acts as either principal or agent for the Trustee in respect of all transactions of units of the Fund. However, in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, the Fund will invest, where possible, in classes of the underlying funds which are not subject to any management charges. Alternatively, where this is not possible, the Manager will rebate management charges to the Fund. The Fund will not be subject to any preliminary/initial sales fee in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, although it may be subject to duties and charges in respect of subscriptions and redemptions in such investment funds.

As at 28 February 2025 and 29 February 2024 the following unitholders:

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

Transactions in money market instruments to manage the Fund's daily liquidity position are excluded from the analysis.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.07% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

This portion of the USD 475 million credit facility will be allocated to the Fund based on the credit facility agreement dated 19 April 2024. This credit facility may be utilised by the Fund for temporary funding purposes, including, without limitation, the funding of investor redemptions. Any interest and commitment fees in relation to drawdowns from such credit facility are paid out of the assets of the Fund.

The credit facility was not used during the year.

12. Related Parties

The Manager acts as either principal or agent for the Trustee in respect of all transactions of units of the Fund. The aggregate monies received through issue and paid through cancellation of units are disclosed in the Statement of Change in Net Assets Attributable to Unitholders and note 7. Any amounts due to or from the Manager at the year end are disclosed in notes 8 and 9. Management fees and registration fees paid to the Manager are shown in note 5. The balances due at the year end in respect of these fees are shown in note 9. Securities lending revenue earned by the Fund is disclosed in note 4.

The Fund may invest in other Collective Investment Schemes ("CIS"), which may or may not be operated and/or managed by an affiliate of the Manager. As an investor in such other CIS, in addition to the fees, costs and expenses payable by a unitholder in the Fund, each unitholder may also indirectly bear a portion of the fees, costs and expenses of the underlying CIS, including management, investment management and administration and other expenses. However, in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, the Fund will invest, where possible, in classes of the underlying funds which are not subject to any management charges. Alternatively, where this is not possible, the Manager will rebate management charges to the Fund. The Fund will not be subject to any preliminary/initial sales fee in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, although it may be subject to duties and charges in respect of subscriptions and redemptions in such investment funds.

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

Transactions in money market instruments to manage the Fund's daily liquidity position are excluded from the analysis.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.05% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.
- The lowest category does not mean risk free.
- The use of derivatives will impact the value of the Fund and may expose the Fund to a higher degree of risk. Derivatives are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the asset on which they are based and can increase the size of losses and gains, resulting in greater fluctuations in the value of the Fund. The impact to the Fund can be greater where derivatives are used in an extensive or complex way.

11. Credit Facility

The Funds entered into a credit facility with JPMorgan whereby JPMorgan, together with other syndicated lenders, made a portion of a USD 475 million credit facility available to the Fund. This portion of the USD 475 million credit facility will be allocated to the Fund based on the credit facility agreement dated 19 April 2024. This credit facility may be utilised by the Fund for temporary funding purposes, including, without limitation, the funding of investor redemptions. Any interest and commitment fees in relation to drawdowns from such credit facility are paid out of the assets of the Fund.

The credit facility was not used during the year.

12. Related Parties

Parties are considered to be related if one party has the ability to control the other party or exercise significant influence over the other party in making financial or operational decisions.

The following entities were related parties of the Fund during the year ended 28 February 2025:

Manager/Registrar:	BlackRock Fund Managers Limited
Investment Manager:	BlackRock Investment Management (UK) Limited
Stock Lending Agent:	BlackRock Advisors (UK) Limited

The Manager acts as either principal or agent for the Trustee in respect of all transactions of units of the Fund. The aggregate monies received through issue and paid through cancellation of units are disclosed in the Statement of Change in Net Assets Attributable to Unitholders and note 7. Any amounts due to or from the Manager at the year end are disclosed in notes 8 and 9. Management fees and registration fees paid to the Manager are shown in note 5. The balances due at the year end in respect of these fees are shown in note 9. Securities lending revenue earned by the Fund is disclosed in note 4.

The Fund may invest in other Collective Investment Schemes ("CIS"), which may or may not be operated and/or managed by an affiliate of the Manager. As an investor in such other CIS, in addition to the fees, costs and expenses payable by a unitholder in the Fund, each unitholder may also indirectly bear a portion of the fees, costs and expenses of the underlying CIS, including management, investment management and administration and other expenses. However, in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, the Fund will invest, where possible, in classes of the underlying funds which are not subject to any management charges. Alternatively, where this is not possible, the Manager will rebate management charges to the Fund. The Fund will not

Transactions in money market instruments to manage the Fund's daily liquidity position are excluded from the analysis.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.11% (29 February 2024: 0.08%).

14. Units in Issue

The movement in units in issue for the year ended 28 February 2025 is as follows:

Balance at the end of the year	5,000,000	323,838	217,665	3,000

Revenue is allocated each day pro rata to the capital value of assets attributable to each class and taxation is computed by reference to the net revenue after expenses attributable to each class. The distribution per unit class is given in the distribution table. All unit classes have the same rights on winding up.

15. Post Balance Sheet Events

There have been no significant events subsequent to the year end, which, in the opinion of the Manager, may have had an impact on the Financial Statements for the year ended 28 February 2025.

About the Fund

Risk and Reward Profile

- The risk indicator was calculated incorporating simulated historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.
- The lowest category does not mean risk free.
- The use of derivatives will impact the value of the Fund and may expose the Fund to a higher degree of risk. Derivatives are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the asset on which they are based and can increase the size of losses and gains, resulting in greater fluctuations in the value of the Fund. The impact to the Fund can be greater where derivatives are used in an extensive or complex way.

13. Portfolio Transaction Costs continued

Transactions in money market instruments to manage the Fund's daily liquidity position are excluded from the analysis.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.05% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.
- The lowest category does not mean risk free.
- The use of derivatives will impact the value of the Fund and may expose the Fund to a higher degree of risk. Derivatives are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the asset on which they are based and can increase the size of losses and gains, resulting in greater fluctuations in the value of the Fund. The impact to the Fund can be greater where derivatives are used in an extensive or complex way.

However, in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, the Fund will invest, where possible, in classes of the underlying funds which are not subject to any management charges. 13. Portfolio Transaction Costs continued

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

Transactions in money market instruments to manage the Fund's daily liquidity position are excluded from the analysis.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.06% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

14. Units in Issue

The movement in units in issue for the year ended 28 February 2025 is as follows:

Balance at the end of the year	4,695	86,528,891	133,477,224

Revenue is allocated each day pro rata to the capital value of assets attributable to each class and taxation is computed by reference to the net revenue after expenses attributable to each class. The distribution per unit class is given in the distribution table. All unit classes have the same rights on winding up.

15. Post Balance Sheet Events

There have been no significant events subsequent to the year end, which, in the opinion of the Manager, may have had an impact on the Financial Statements for the year ended 28 February 2025.

- The risk indicator was calculated incorporating simulated historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.
- The lowest category does not mean risk free.
- The use of derivatives will impact the value of the Fund and may expose the Fund to a higher degree of risk. Derivatives are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the asset on which they are based and can increase the size of losses and gains, resulting in greater fluctuations in the value of the Fund. The impact to the Fund can be greater where derivatives are used in an extensive or complex way.

¹ The return after charges figures are based on the net asset value reported for financial statements purposes and are not the same as the performance returns figures quoted in the Performance Table and the Investment Report which are based on swing pricing. The Funds began to use single pricing and the single swing pricing methodology with effect from 27 November 2023. Historic performance data published prior to that date will be based on the previous dual pricing valuation methodology which were based on bid-to-bid dealing prices.

² Operating charges are annualised and exclude portfolio trade-related costs, except costs paid to the custodian/depositary and entry/exit charges paid to an underlying collective investment scheme (if any).

³ Direct transaction costs are annualised and principally comprise commissions and taxes, attributable to the Fund's purchase and sale of collective investment schemes. See note 13 for further details.

Transactions in money market instruments to manage the Fund's daily liquidity position are excluded from the analysis.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.04% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

6. Taxation continued

(b) Factors affecting the tax charge

The tax assessed for the year is lower than the standard rate of corporation tax in the UK for an authorised unit trust. The differences are explained below:

	For the year to 28.2.2025 £000's	For the year to 29.2.2024 £000's
Net revenue before taxation	1,774	244
Corporation tax at 20% (29 February 2024: 20%)	355	49
Effects of:
Capitalised income subject to tax	1	2
Irrecoverable UK Income tax	3	–
Movement in unrecognised excess management expenses	12	–
Revenue not subject to tax	(368)	(49)
Total tax charge [see note 6(a)]	3	2

At 28 February 2025, the Fund had surplus management expenses of £58,000 (29 February 2024: £Nil.) It is unlikely that the Fund will generate sufficient taxable profits in the future to utilise these expenses and, therefore, a deferred tax asset of £12,000 (29 February 2024: £Nil) has not been recognised.

7. Distributions

	For the year to 28.2.2025 £000's	For the year to 29.2.2024 £000's
Interim distribution	301	50

Add: Amounts deducted on cancellation of units	572	125
Less: Amounts received on issue of units	(1,445)	(520)
Distributions	1,772	244

The distributable amount has been calculated as follows:

Net revenue after taxation	1,771	242
Add: Tax on capitalised Manager's charge rebates	1	2
Distributions	1,772	244

Details of the interim and final distributions per unit are set out in the tables on page 346.

12. Related Parties

Parties are considered to be related if one party has the ability to control the other party or exercise significant influence over the other party in making financial or operational decisions.

The following entities were related parties of the Fund during the year ended 28 February 2025:

Manager/Registrar: BlackRock Fund Managers Limited
Investment Manager: BlackRock Investment Management (UK) Limited
Stock Lending Agent: BlackRock Advisors (UK) Limited

The ultimate holding company of the Manager and Investment Manager is BlackRock Inc. ("BlackRock"), a company incorporated in Delaware, USA.

The Manager acts as either principal or agent for the Trustee in respect of all transactions of units of the Fund. The aggregate monies received through issue and paid through cancellation of units are disclosed in the Statement of Change in Net Assets Attributable to Unitholders and note 7. Any amounts due to or from the Manager at the year end are disclosed in notes 8 and 9. Management fees and registration fees paid to the Manager are shown in note 5. The Fund may invest in other Collective Investment Schemes ("CIS"), which may or may not be operated and/or managed by an affiliate of the Manager. As an investor in such other CIS, in addition to the fees, costs and expenses payable by a unitholder in the Fund, each unitholder may also indirectly bear a portion of the fees, costs and expenses of the underlying CIS, including management, investment management and administration and other expenses. However, in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, the Fund will invest, where possible, in classes of the underlying funds which are not subject to any management charges. Alternatively, where this is not possible, the Manager will rebate management charges to the Fund. The Fund will not be subject to any preliminary/initial sales fee in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, although it may be subject to duties and charges in respect of subscriptions and redemptions in such investment funds.

As at 28 February 2025 and 29 February 2024 the following unitholders:

(i) are funds managed by the BlackRock Group or are affiliates of BlackRock Inc. or

(ii) are investors, other than those included in (i) above, who held 51% or more of the voting units in issue in the Fund and are as a result, considered to be a related party to the Fund.

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

Transactions in money market instruments to manage the Fund's daily liquidity position are excluded from the analysis.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.06% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

12. Related Parties continued

The ultimate holding company of the Manager, Registrar, Investment Manager and securities lending agent is BlackRock Inc. ("BlackRock"), a company incorporated in Delaware, USA.

The Manager acts as either principal or agent for the Trustee in respect of all transactions of units of the Fund. The aggregate monies received through issue and paid through cancellation of units are disclosed in the Statement of Change in Net Assets Attributable to Unitholders and note 7. Any amounts due to or from the Manager at the year end are disclosed in notes 8 and 9. Management fees and registration fees paid to the Manager are shown in note 5. The balances due at the year end in respect of these fees are shown in note 9.

The Fund may invest in other Collective Investment Schemes ("CIS"), which may or may not be operated and/or managed by an affiliate of the Manager. As an investor in such other CIS, in addition to the fees, costs and expenses payable by a unitholder in the Fund, each unitholder may also indirectly bear a portion of the fees, costs and expenses of the underlying CIS, including management, investment management and administration and other expenses. However, in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, the Fund will invest, where possible, in classes of the underlying funds which are not subject to any management charges. Alternatively, where this is not possible, the Manager will rebate management charges to the Fund. The Fund will not be subject to any preliminary/initial sales fee in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, although it may be subject to duties and charges in respect of subscriptions and redemptions in such investment funds.

As at 28 February 2025 and 29 February 2024 the following unitholders:

- (i) are funds managed by the BlackRock Group or are affiliates of BlackRock Inc. or
- (ii) are investors, other than those included in (i) above, who held 51% or more of the voting units in issue in the Fund and are as a result, considered to be a related party to the Fund.

	Number of investors holding 51% or more of the voting units in issue who are not Affiliated Funds	Total % of units held by unitholders holding 51% or more of the voting units in issue who are not Affiliated Funds

As at 29 February 2024:

All related party transactions were carried out at arm's length in the ordinary course of business. The terms and returns received by the related parties in making the investments above were no more favourable than those received by other investors investing into the same unit class.

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.03% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

However, in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, the Fund will invest, where possible, in classes of the underlying funds which are not subject to any management charges. 13. Portfolio Transaction Costs continued

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.05% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

14. Units in Issue

The movement in units in issue for the year ended 28 February 2025 is as follows:

Balance at the end of the year	1,990,000	369,281	1,246,401

Revenue is allocated each day pro rata to the capital value of assets attributable to each class and taxation is computed by reference to the net revenue after expenses attributable to each class. The distribution per unit class is given in the distribution table. All unit classes have the same rights on winding up.

15. Post Balance Sheet Events

There have been no significant events subsequent to the year end, which, in the opinion of the Manager, may have had an impact on the Financial Statements for the year ended 28 February 2025.

About the Fund

Risk and Reward Profile

The risk indicator was calculated incorporating simulated historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund.

- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.
- The lowest category does not mean risk free.
- The use of derivatives will impact the value of the Fund and may expose the Fund to a higher degree of risk. Derivatives are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the asset on which they are based and can increase the size of losses and gains, resulting in greater fluctuations in the value of the Fund. The impact to the Fund can be greater where derivatives are used in an extensive or complex way.

The ultimate holding company of the Manager, Registrar, Investment Manager and securities lending agent is BlackRock Inc. ("BlackRock"), a company incorporated in Delaware, USA.

The Manager acts as either principal or agent for the Trustee in respect of all transactions of units of the Fund. The aggregate monies received through issue and paid through cancellation of units are disclosed in the Statement of Change in Net Assets Attributable to Unitholders and note 7. As an investor in such other CIS, in addition to the fees, costs and expenses payable by a unitholder in the Fund, each unitholder may also indirectly bear a portion of the fees, costs and expenses of the underlying CIS, including management, investment management and administration and other expenses. However, in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, the Fund will invest, where possible, in classes of the underlying funds which are not subject to any management charges. Alternatively, where this is not possible, the Manager will rebate management charges to the Fund. The Fund will not be subject to any preliminary/initial sales fee in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, although it may be subject to duties and charges in respect of subscriptions and redemptions in such investment funds.

As at 28 February 2025 and 29 February 2024 the following unitholders:

- (i) are funds managed by the BlackRock Group or are affiliates of BlackRock Inc. or
- (ii) are investors, other than those included in (i) above, who held 51% or more of the voting units in issue in the Fund and are as a result, considered to be a related party to the Fund.

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.06% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

12. Related Parties continued

The following entities were related parties of the Fund during the year ended 28 February 2025:

Manager/Registrar:	BlackRock Fund Managers Limited
Investment Manager:	BlackRock Investment Management (UK) Limited
Stock Lending Agent:	BlackRock Advisors (UK) Limited

The ultimate holding company of the Manager, Registrar, Investment Manager and securities lending agent is BlackRock Inc. ("BlackRock"), a company incorporated in Delaware, USA.

The Manager acts as either principal or agent for the Trustee in respect of all transactions of units of the Fund. The aggregate monies received through issue and paid through cancellation of units are disclosed in the Statement of Change in Net Assets Attributable to Unitholders and note 7. Any amounts due to or from the Manager at the year end are disclosed in notes 8 and 9. Management fees and registration fees paid to the Manager are shown in note 5. The balances due at the year end in respect of these fees are shown in note 9.

The Fund may invest in other Collective Investment Schemes ("CIS"), which may or may not be operated and/or managed by an affiliate of the Manager. As an investor in such other CIS, in addition to the fees, costs and expenses payable by a unitholder in the Fund, each unitholder may also indirectly bear a portion of the fees, costs and expenses of the underlying CIS, including management, investment management and administration and other expenses. However, in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, the Fund will invest, where possible, in classes of the underlying funds which are not subject to any management charges. Alternatively, where this is not possible, the Manager will rebate management charges to the Fund. The Fund will not be subject to any preliminary/initial sales fee in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, although it may be subject to duties and charges in respect of subscriptions and redemptions in such investment funds.

As at 28 February 2025 and 29 February 2024 the following unitholders:

- (i) are funds managed by the BlackRock Group or are affiliates of BlackRock Inc. or
- (ii) are investors, other than those included in (i) above, who held 51% or more of the voting units in issue in the Fund and are as a result, considered to be a related party to the Fund.

Total transaction costs		–		–
Total transaction costs as a % of average net assets		0.00%		0.00%

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.07% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.09% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.10% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

However, in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, the Fund will invest, where possible, in classes of the underlying funds which are not subject to any management charges. Alternatively, where this is not possible, the Manager will rebate management charges to the Fund. The Fund will not be subject to any preliminary/initial sales fee in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, although it may be subject to duties and charges in respect of subscriptions and redemptions in such investment funds.

As at 28 February 2025 and 29 February 2024 the following unitholders:

The above analysis covers direct transaction costs incurred by the Fund during the year. However it is important to understand the nature of other transaction costs associated with different investment asset classes and instruments types.

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.10% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

The ultimate holding company of the Manager, Registrar, Investment Manager and securities lending agent is BlackRock Inc. ("BlackRock"), a company incorporated in Delaware, USA.

The Manager acts as either principal or agent for the Trustee in respect of all transactions of units of the Fund. The aggregate monies received through issue and paid through cancellation of units are disclosed in the Statement of Change in Net Assets Attributable to Unitholders and note 7. The Fund may invest in other Collective Investment Schemes ("CIS"), which may or may not be operated and/or managed by an affiliate of the Manager. As an investor in such other CIS, in addition to the fees, costs and expenses payable by a unitholder in the Fund, each unitholder may also indirectly bear a portion of the fees, costs and expenses of the underlying CIS, including management, investment management and administration and other expenses. However, in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, the Fund will invest, where possible, in classes of the underlying funds which are not subject to any management charges. Alternatively, where this is not possible, the Manager will rebate management charges to the Fund. The Fund will not be subject to any preliminary/initial sales fee in respect of investments made in any other investment fund whose manager is an affiliate of the Manager, although it may be subject to duties and charges in respect of subscriptions and redemptions in such investment funds.

As at 28 February 2025 and 29 February 2024 the following unitholders:

- (i) are funds managed by the BlackRock Group or are affiliates of BlackRock Inc. or

For the Fund's investment in collective investment scheme holdings there will potentially be dealing spread costs applicable to purchases and sales. However additionally there are indirect transaction costs incurred in those underlying funds, throughout the holding period for the instruments, which are not separately identifiable and do not form part of the analysis above.

Transaction costs for derivatives positions will be either incurred as direct costs or form part of the dealing spread for the instruments. Any direct costs are identified in the analysis above. Dealing spread costs incurred by the Fund vary considerably for the different asset/instrument types depending on a number of factors including transaction value and market sentiment.

At the Balance Sheet date the average portfolio dealing spread (difference between bid and offer prices of all investments expressed as a percentage of the offer price value) was 0.11% (29 February 2024: 0.00%).

15. Post Balance Sheet Events

There have been no significant events subsequent to the year end, which, in the opinion of the Manager, may have had an impact on the Financial Statements for the year ended 28 February 2025.

Statement of Manager’s Responsibilities

The Manager is required by the rules of the COLL Sourcebook to prepare the financial statements for each financial year. These financial statements must be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards in the United Kingdom to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Trust at the year end and of the net revenue/(expense) and net capital gains/(losses) for the year. In preparing these financial statements the Manager is required to prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Trust will continue in operation.

The financial statements should comply with the disclosure requirements of the Statement of Recommended Practice (the “SORP”) for Authorised Funds issued by the Investment Management Association (subsequently The Investment Association) and must comply with any relevant provisions of the Trust Deed.

The Manager is responsible for keeping such accounting records as are necessary to enable it to ensure that the financial statements comply with the COLL Sourcebook, the SORP and the Trust Deed.

Statement of the Trustee's Responsibilities in Respect of the Fund and Report of the Trustee to the Unitholders of the Trust for the Year Ended 28 February 2025

The Depositary in its capacity as Trustee of the Trust must ensure that the Trust is managed in accordance with the Financial Conduct Authority's Collective Investment Schemes Sourcebook, the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, as amended, (together "the Regulations"), the Trust Deed and Prospectus (together "the Scheme documents") as detailed below.

The Trustee must in the context of its role act honestly, fairly, professionally, independently and in the interests of the Trust and its investors.

The Trustee is responsible for the safekeeping of all the custodial assets and maintaining a record of all other assets of the Trust in accordance with the Regulations.

The Trustee must ensure that:

- the Trust's cash flows are properly monitored and that cash of the Trust is booked in cash accounts in accordance with the Regulations;
- the sale, issue, repurchase, redemption and cancellation of units are carried out in accordance with the Regulations;
- the value of units of the Trust are calculated in accordance with the Regulations;
- any consideration relating to transactions in the Trust's assets is remitted to the Trust within the usual time limits;
- the Trust's income is applied in accordance with the Regulations; and
- the instructions of the Authorised Fund Manager ("the AFM"), which is the UCITS Management Company, are carried out (unless they conflict with the Regulations).

The Trustee also has a duty to take reasonable care to ensure that the Trust is managed in accordance with the Regulations and the Scheme documents of the Trust in relation to the investment and borrowing powers applicable to the Trust.

Having carried out such procedures as we considered necessary to discharge our responsibilities as Trustee of the Trust, it is our opinion, based on the information available to us and the explanations provided, that, in all material respects the Trust, acting through the AFM:

- (i) has carried out the issue, sale, redemption and cancellation, and calculation of the price of the Trusts' units and the application of the Trust's income in accordance with the Regulations and the Scheme documents of the Trust; and
- (ii) has observed the investment and borrowing powers and restrictions applicable to the Trust in accordance with the Regulations and the Scheme documents of the Trust.

Independent Auditor's Report to the Unitholders of BlackRock Investment Funds

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of BlackRock Investment Funds ("the Trust") comprising each of its Funds for the year ended 28 February 2025, which comprise the Statement of Total Return, the Statement of Change in Net Assets Attributable to Unitholders, the Balance Sheet, the related notes and the Distribution Tables for each of the Trust's Funds, and the Accounting and Distribution Policies and Financial Instruments and Risks of the Trust, which include a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards including FRS 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable to the UK and Republic of Ireland' (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion, the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Trust comprising each of its Funds as at 28 February 2025 and of the net revenue/(expense) and the net capital gains/(losses) on the scheme property of the Trust comprising each of its Funds for the year then ended; and
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report below. We are independent of the Trust in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the Financial Reporting Council's (the "FRC") Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements we have concluded that the Manager's use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for a period assessed by the Manager, which is one year from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the Manager with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report. However, because not all future events or conditions can be predicted, this statement is not a guarantee as to the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern.

Other information

The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The Manager is responsible for the other information contained within the Annual Report.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in this report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

Our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether this gives rise to a material misstatement in the financial statements themselves. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of the other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinions on other matters prescribed by the rules of the Collective Investment Schemes Sourcebook of the Financial Conduct Authority (the “FCA”)

In our opinion:

- the financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice relating to Authorised Funds, the rules of the Collective Investment Schemes Sourcebook of the FCA and the Trust Deed; and
- there is nothing to indicate that adequate accounting records have not been kept or that the financial statements are not in agreement with those records; and
- the information given in the Manager's report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matter in relation to which the Collective Investment Schemes Sourcebook of the FCA requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- we have not received all the information and explanations which, to the best of our knowledge and belief, are necessary for the purposes of our audit.

Responsibilities of the Manager

As explained more fully in the Manager's responsibilities statement set out on page 490, the Manager is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the Manager determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Manager is responsible for assessing the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Manager either intends to wind up or terminate the Trust or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Explanation as to what extent the audit was considered capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect irregularities, including fraud. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement due to fraud is higher than the risk of not detecting one resulting from error, as fraud may involve deliberate concealment by, for example, forgery or intentional misrepresentations, or through collusion. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below. However, the primary responsibility for the prevention and detection of fraud rests with both those charged with governance of the entity and management.

Our approach was as follows:

- We obtained an understanding of the legal and regulatory frameworks that are applicable to the Trust and determined that the most significant are United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (UK GAAP), Investment Management Association's Statement of Recommended Practice (IMA SORP), the FCA Collective Investment Schemes Sourcebook, the Trust's Trust Deed and the Prospectus.
- We understood how the Trust is complying with those frameworks through discussions with the Manager and the Trust's administrator and a review of the Trust's documented policies and procedures.
- We assessed the susceptibility of the Trust's financial statements to material misstatement, including how fraud might occur by considering the risk of management override, specifically management's propensity to influence revenue and amounts available for distribution. We identified a fraud risk with respect to the incomplete or inaccurate revenue recognition through incorrect classification of special dividends and the resulting impact to amounts available for distribution. We tested the appropriateness of management's classification of a sample of special dividends as either a capital or revenue return and incorporated unpredictability into the nature, timing and extent of our testing.
- Based on this understanding we designed our audit procedures to identify non-compliance with such laws and regulations. Our procedures involved review of the reporting to the Manager with respect to the application of the documented policies and procedures and review of the financial statements to test compliance with the reporting requirements of the Trust.

Efficient Portfolio Management Techniques

The Manager may, on behalf of certain Funds and subject to the conditions and within the limits laid down by the FCA and the Prospectus, employ techniques and instruments relating to transferable securities, including investments in Over-the-Counter Financial Derivative Instruments (OTC FDIs) provided that such techniques and instruments are used for efficient portfolio management purposes or to provide protection against exchange risk or for direct investment purposes, where applicable.

In addition to the investments in OTC FDIs, the Funds may employ other techniques and instruments relating to transferable securities and money market instruments, subject to the conditions set out in the Trust's Prospectus, as amended from time to time, and the ESMA Guidelines (as adopted by the FCA), such as repurchase / reverse repurchase transactions ("repo transactions") and securities lending.

Total Return Swaps ("TRS") (including Contracts for Difference ("CFDs"))

The following table details the value of TRS (including CFDs) as a proportion of the Funds' NAV, as at 28 February 2025 and the returns earned for the year ended 28 February 2025. The value of TRS (including CFDs) is based on the underlying exposure value on a gross absolute basis as disclosed in the Funds' portfolio statements.

BlackRock Sterling Short Duration Credit Fund	3.44	2.94	N/A

If there is securities lending revenue generated, the securities lending agent will receive a fee of 37.5% of such securities lending revenue and will pay any third party operational and administrative costs associated with, and incurred in respect of, such activity, out of its fee. Income earned during the year by the Funds from securities lending transactions is disclosed in the Funds' notes to the financial statements.

All returns from OTC FDIs (including TRSs/CFDs) will accrue to the Funds and are not subject to any returns sharing arrangements with the Fund's Manager or any other third parties.
